RAPID PROGRESS TOWARDS SETTLEMENT

Punjab Problem Solved

WELCOME CHANGE IN SIKH ATTITUDE

Fundamental Rights For Frontier Province

- (1.) Settling of Fundamental Rights,
- (2.) Equal rights to the Frontier and Baluchistan.
- (3.) Representation by Convention of Minorities in Cabinets and Services,
- (4.) Agreement over the Punjab question,
- (5.) Tentative settlement of Bengal.

The above, according to our Staff Correspondent, are the results of Friday's deliberations of the Committee of Twenty appointed by the Unity Conference.

The Plenary Session which was to meet on Friday night has been postponed till Saturday night on account of the prolonged deliberations of the Sub-Committee.

"WE ARE GETTING ALONG"

(From Our Staff Correspondent).

ALLAHABAD, Nov. 4.

The plenary session of the Unity Conference fixed for 6 this evening, could not be held as the Committee appointed by the Conference had not concluded its work, and was not in a position to report an agreed formula to the Conference. The session had been now adjourned till 6 p.m. Saturday, by which time, it is expected, the Committee will be definitely able to place the report before the Conference.

The Committee resumed sitting at 4-30 and deliberations lasted till about 9, when it adjourned till 8 on Saturday morning.

PLEASANT DISCUSSIONS.

The general trend of discussions is said to be very pleasant, and a feeling of goodwill prevailed throughout in spite of the fact that many embarrassing, delicate positions had arisen. This could be seen from the cheerful faces of the leaders, when they emerged out of the meeting hall.

It can be definitely stated that discussions in the evening were much healthier and some delegates remarked, they were nearing unity.

"GOING AHEAD."

Maulana Shaikat Ali said: "We are getting further and further. We have finished three more items and I think the question of the Punjab is also much easier now." Despite strict secrecy maintained and members' uniform reply Pressmen that their lips were sealed, I am in a position to state that the Committee has decided almost all questions except the question of the form of electorates' representation in Bengal and the Punjab and Sindh separation. These undecided questions have also been touched and in the case of Bengal a tentative agreement has been reached, which will take final shape when it comes for discussion.

SIKHS FALL IN LINE.

Similarly on the Punjab question there is a tentative proposal before the Committee and according to one report, it has been almost settled. The difficulty that arose owing to the attitude of the Sikhs, I understand has been tidied over on account of the welcome change in their attitude after it was agreed to have a Sikh member on the Cabinet.

SIND PROBLEM.

The question of Sind separation was actually under discussion when the Committee rose to-day. Professor Chabani made a strong case against Separation, but it is felt that his conclusion gave rise to the hope that Separationists will not stretch the matter to a breaking point. Where the questions of Bengal, Punjab and Sind are solved, that of the electorates is expected to be solved automatically.

FRONTIER AND BALUCHISTAN.

The question of equal rights to the Frontier Province and Baluchistan is among the points settled to-day as the Committee accepted their claims.

Discussion of the Frontier question is reported to have been particularly lively as Mr. Sayad Jafarsha, a Muslim delegate from that Province and Mr. Khanna, a Hindu delegate, are said to have indulged in mutual recriminations, but ultimately came to terms and the Committee Members expressed their relief at it by a hearty laughter. It is considered that if all members adopted the same attitude regarding the questions with which they are immediately concerned the solution would be very easy.

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS.

There was an animated discussion on the question of Fundamental Rights and it is understood a major portion of the Committee's time in the earlier stages was devoted to this question alone. A feature of discussion on this question was careful consideration given by the Committee to the suggestion or demand of the members of Jamiat-ul-Ulema regarding the inclusion of personal law of Muslim Shariat in the Declaration of Fundamental Rights. It is understood the Committee agreed to the principle.

FRIDAY'S ACHIEVEMENTS.

Summing up the results of today's discussions are: (1) Settling of Fundamental Rights; (2) Equal rights to the Frontier and Baluchistan; (3) Representation by convention of minorities in the Cabinets and Services; (4) Agreements over the Punjab question and (5) tentative settlement of Bengal, the question of Sind being still under discussion.

Shaukat Ali On Unity Committee's Progress

(From Our Staff Correspondent.)
ALLAHABAD, Nov. 4.
The Unity Conference Committee, appointed by the Plenary Session adjourned for one hour to-day.

Members as they stepped out were surrounded by pressmen but were found reluctant to disclose the trend of discussions. Maulana Shaikat Ali said: "We are getting further and further. We have finished three more items and I think the question of the Punjab is also much easier now." Despite strict secrecy maintained and members' uniform reply Pressmen that their lips were sealed, I am in a position to state that the Committee has decided almost all questions except the question of the form of electorates' representation in Bengal and the Punjab and Sindh separation. These undecided questions have also been touched and in the case of Bengal a tentative agreement has been reached, which will take final shape when it comes for discussion.

"RED" HAND BEHIND HUNGER-MARCH

Revelations At Bow Street Police Court

LONDON, Nov. 4.

Startling revelations of alleged participation of Soviets in efforts to stir up strife in Britain were made at the Bow Street Police Court when Sidney Job Elias described as Chairman of the National Unemployed Workers' Movement was charged with inciting Hannington, leader of the movement and Llewellyn to cause public discontent and disturbances against police.

The prosecution said that the movement was responsible for the organisation of the unemployed march. Elias was apparently in Russia last September and acting under the instructions of a section of the Third International which directed the unemployed movement all over the world, sent a letter headed Moscow which apparently reached England by hand addressed to Llewellyn or Hannington.

THE "RED" LETTER.

The letter which was seized on November 1, when police were searching the offices of the National Unemployed Movement in relation to another matter, made reference to the fact that he was conveying directions of "Profratern" (Soviet Body).

Proposals were made as to how to deal with "police terror" in connection with the Birkenhead and Liverpool disturbances and the necessity for street agitation and also agitation to dismiss the Chief of Police. Further suggestions were to organise brief strikes among employed groups in favour of the abolition of means test and draw trade union branches into demonstrations.

The letter was signed "Sid." The police recognised the handwriting as Elias'.
"TOO SERIOUS TO GRANT BAIL."

The accused was remanded to custody, the Chief Magistrate stating that the case was far too serious to grant bail, notwithstanding Elias' offer not to indulge in propaganda in the meantime.—Reuter.

M. C. C.'s BIG SCORE

341 For Five Against S. Australia

LONDON, Nov. 4.

Adelaide.—The M. C. C. met South Australia in the third match of their tour. 6,000 spectators watched the game which was played in fine weather. Jardine, winning the toss, sent in Sutcliffe and Leyland to open the M. C. C. innings on a good wicket. They made 26 and 59 respectively and the score was 93 for no loss when the lunch interval was taken. Leyland playing bright cricket completed his half century in twelve minutes over one hour, and his 49 included eight fours.

LEYLAND'S CENTURY.
The attendance had increased to 10,000 when on resumption, Leyland playing vigorous cricket reached his individual century in three minutes under two-and-a-half hours. Sutcliffe and Leyland were still batting at the tea interval when the score was 219 for nil, the individual scores being 85 and 123.

AFTER TEA.

Two M. C. C. wickets fell in quick succession for the addition of only twelve runs after tea. The first wicket partnership ended when Leyland was caught by Nitschke at point, off Grimmett, for 127 (223/1).

Leyland played a magnificent innings, lasting three hours and 16 minutes during which he punished Grimmett. His score included 14 fours, and he gave one chance at 93.

SUTCLIFFE RUN OUT.

Patandri who joined Sutcliffe was run out for nil (231/2).

341 FOR FIVE.

At the close of a day's play, the M. C. C. had made 341 runs for 5 wickets. Sutcliffe was caught at the squareleg off Grimmett for 154 (310/3). He played a characteristic innings which lasted for four hours. He hit two sixes and 13 fours. Grimmett claimed his third victim of the day in Hammond, who was stumped by Walker for 27 (333/5). Ames was caught and bowled by Jamieson for 10 (327/4). Jardine and Verity were still batting with 6 and 3 respectively when stumps were drawn for the day with the total of 341 runs for the loss of five wickets.

Scores:—
M. C. C. (First Innings):—Leyland caught Nitschke, bowled Grimmett 127; Sutcliffe caught Nitschke, bowled Grimmett 154; Patandri (run out) 0; Hammond stumped Walker, bowled Grimmett 27; Ames caught and bowled Jamieson 10; Jardine (not out) 6; Verity (not out) 3. Extras 14. Total (for 5 wickets) 341.—Reuter.

ASSEMBLY & OTTAWA TARIFF BILL

NEW DELHI, Nov. 4.
It is understood that the motion for reference of the Ottawa Tariff Bill to Select Committee will be made in the second week of the Assembly session and that, thereafter, the Select Committee's report on the Ordinance Bill will be taken into consideration. Thus the Tariff Bill will be the last measure to pass during the special session.—A.P.

MUSLIM PROCESSION DISPERSED

Delhi Jamiat Banners Seized By Police

NEW DELHI, Nov. 4.

After the Friday prayers, the Jamiat-ul-Ulema took out a procession through the streets of Delhi but they were stopped in front of the Gurdwara in the Chandni Chowk by the police, who made a cordon round them.

Sardar Abdus Samad Khan, magistrate, ordered them to disperse. On their refusal to do so, police resorted to a mild lathi charge and dispersed the procession.

Banners and placards carried by the processionists were also seized by the police. The processionists attempted to form a second procession, but were again dispersed by the police near the Clock Tower.—A.P.

SURAT MATCH FACTORY GUTTED

Over Three Lakhs Damage

SURAT, Nov. 4.
A fire broke out this afternoon at the Hooseni Match Factory near the Railway Station resulting in complete gutting of the building. The cause of the fire is not known.

The Municipal Fire Brigades rushed to the spot but their effort, were in vain, as the water hydrants were very far off. The Superintendent of Police summoned policemen who arrived in a lorry and extinguished the fire by pouring buckets of water.

It is understood that the damage exceeds three lakhs of rupees and the factory is uninsured.—A.P.

ANGLO-CANADIAN TRADE TREATY

Second Reading Passed In Commons

LONDON, Nov. 4.
Ottawa.—After three weeks' debate the House of Commons by 128 votes to 80 passed the second reading of the Anglo-Canadian Trade Treaty arising out of the Ottawa Agreements, which now goes to a committee and is likely to be passed expeditiously before November 15.

Premier Bennett, alluding to the fact that the Liberal Party opposed the Bill, declared that its action was inconsistent with its record.

Liberals under the lash of the party whip were now opposing what they supported at the Imperial Conference in 1923.—Reuter's Special.

FIRE IN AMRITSAR COTTON MILLS

Building & Machinery Gutted

AMRITSAR, Nov. 4.
A serious fire broke out this morning at 7/30 a.m. in Gururam Das Cotton Mills.

Besides the Municipal and Sewa Society Fire Brigades, the Lahore Fire Brigade was also requisitioned and the Deputy Commissioner Mr. E. M. Jenkins was present on the scene. The damage is estimated at some lakhs. The building and machinery were gutted.

The property is said to be insured.—A.P.

STILL-BORN MINISTRY FOR MADRAS?

Rajah Of Bobbili And His Colleagues

MR. NAIDU'S "NO-CONFIDENCE" MOTION MAY BE CARRIED ON MONDAY

(From Our Correspondent).

MADRAS, Nov. 4.

The Rajah of Bobbili, a wealthy landlord of Andhra and a member of the Round Table Conference, was summoned by the Governor to-day consequent on the Madras ministerial crisis and desired him to form a new ministry. Though an official announcement is delayed, it is understood that the Rajah will have Mr. P. T. Rajan and Mr. S. Kumaraswami Reddiar, the old Ministers, who had resigned as colleagues.

The Rajah of Bobbili will be the Chief Minister handling the same portfolio as Mr. Muniswami Naidu while his colleagues will hold the same portfolios as before.

Interesting developments are awaited when the Council meets on Monday. Mr. Naidu with his followers will form coalition with the United Nationalists and perhaps, bring a no-confidence motion against the new Ministry. It is likely that the motion may be carried and the Ministry may be still-born.

Busy canvassing is going on and each side is whipping up all its forces.

Mr. Naidu has declined to be interviewed, but he will make a full statement on the floor of the Legislature on Monday.

The Governor has taken over the Transferred Subjects temporarily.

THE NEW MINISTRY

MADRAS, Nov. 4.

His Excellency the Governor approved of the names submitted by the Rajah of Bobbili this evening. The new Ministry will consist of the Rajah of Bobbili as Chief Minister, Mr. P. T. Rajan and Mr. S. Kumaraswami Reddiar, who resigned from the Naidu Ministry, as the Second and Third Ministers respectively.

The Rajah hails from a well-known aristocratic family of the Madras Presidency and is only 31 years old, perhaps the youngest Minister to take office in any Province. His grandfather was the first Indian Member of the Madras Executive Council during the Governorship of Sir Arthur Lawley.

It is now certain that the Rajah of Bobbili will not attend the Round Table Conference and the name of the Kumararaja of Venkatagiri is mentioned as a likely substitute.—A.P.

Berlin Police Open Fire On Strikers

NAZI CUSTOMS OFFICIAL KILLED: 300 ARRESTS

TRAMS BOMBARDED WITH STONES

LONDON, Nov. 4.

Berlin.—Despite Transport Companies' threat to dismiss all strikers unless they returned to work by 2 p.m. only about three thousand out of 24 thousand employees reported for duty then.

So, Berlin is still without transport.

An attempt was made to run skeleton service but trams which left depot were bombarded with stones and compelled to return. Out of the thousands of tram-cars and 800 motor-buses fewer than a hundred are running.

The Socialist Trade Union of Transport workers have recommended to members to resume, but extremists appear determined to continue the strike. Police have arrested over 300 strikers, pickets and other and detained a hundred.

The police fired a group who stoned them this morning, killing Nazi Customs official and seriously injuring two other men.—Reuter.

How To Remove A Bad Complexion.

Cosmetics can never really help a poor complexion, often they are positively harmful. The sensible rational way is to actually remove the thin veil of stifling hair-dead scarf skin from the face and give the fresh vigorous and beautiful young skin underneath a chance to show itself and to breathe.

This is best done in a very simple way, by merely applying mercerized wax at night, like cold cream and washing it off in the morning. Good mercerized wax can be obtained from any well-stocked chemist. It absorbs the disgusting cuticle gradually and harmlessly leaving a brilliant natural complexion. Of course, this also takes with it all such facial blemishes as red blotches, tan, moth patches, sallowness, liver spots, pimples etc. As a freckle remover and general complexion beautifier this old-fashioned remedy is unequalled.

PASSING SHOW IN COTTON MARKETS

GOLD IS A PROFITABLE SALE AT A PEAK
PRICE THAN A PURCHASE

Cotton Approaching A Level Where
It Is A Purchase

Bombay, Nov. 4.
Messrs. Langley & Co. in their report issued to-day state:—

"To imagine that at the centre of the intricate web of man's economic activities stand a few constructive and controlling intelligences is to entertain a romantic illusion."

So wrote Sir Arthur Salter in that very able book, "Recovery," reprinted four times since its original publication in April this year.

And, in spite of a general regard for Mr. Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt, it probably is so.

Yet the American elections do hold out some hope of revival. A change, even of Presidents, is refreshing, and there is no doubt that the removal of electioneering exigencies will be helpful.

There are very vital international problems necessitating international co-operation. Whoever may be the new President, his energy will be directed towards those problems. But the time element is essentially important.

No little part of the trouble is that there is no unanimity of opinion as to what is required.

GOLD SALES.

We recently noticed a public body in India advocating Government purchases of gold. May be they are right. We are not dogmatic about it. But from a business viewpoint it is difficult to agree with a suggestion entailing purchases of a metal which, in terms of commodities, is at something like the peak price in its history. Gold after all, holds its present value only by the consent of Governments or the Gold Standard who are prepared to buy it. There is a tendency for it to lose that "Rock of Ages" steadfastness which was its characteristic in those years before the war. And at a peak price a sale is usually more profitable than a purchase.

The cornering of a metal or a commodity is a matter of relative simplicity. It is getting out of the corner which is difficult.

These remarks are not irrelevant. They concern our comments last week on the rigidity of the American dollar and the strain imposed on it by the further depreciation of currencies off gold. That strain, in our opinion, can be relieved in one of only two ways. Either by making the dollar less rigid—detaching it from its gold anchor—or by a worldwide rise in prices. The initiative in either case is largely in America's hands.

Meanwhile let it not be forgotten that the first use to which the sterling equalisation fund was put was to support not the pound but the dollar. For the moment sterling looks as if it might ease somewhat further. It is the position further ahead which requires a careful thought.

Cotton, it seems to us, is approaching the point at which it is a purchase. But the time element will see to it that recovery is slow. Wide fluctuations cannot reasonably be anticipated. Heavy crop movement is still an embarrassing factor. As it decreases, steady trade should gradually assume the ascendancy and for that reason we recommend buying for moderate profits in quiet markets.

Up to the Diwali holidays the Bombay market was active, considerable purchases being made on Japanese accounts. Straddle selling from Liverpool to some extent offset Japanese buying and, as a result, bazaar long accounts are very much as they were a fortnight ago.

UN SOUND POSITION.

For some time we have stressed what we consider to be the unsound technical position of the market. From 268 to 200 the daily tone in Bombay has been bullish. The principal price adjustments came in a matter of moments after the September and October Bureau reports. The market, in fact, declined without any very appreciable reduction in long accounts. Those accounts are not as large as they have been in past years because speculation in all markets is less than formerly.

But the market is "long" and the principal reason for the present steadiness is that current prices are not considered to be attractive from a seller's point of view.

There is something to be said for that viewpoint. But it does not get over the fact that the market is not only "long" technically but is also "long" of the Indian crop.

Hedge selling in India is not, to the same extent as in America, the automatic accompaniment of crop movement. Cotton is very frequently held by merchants and even financed by banks without any hedge protection. With prices around 200 hedge selling will assuredly be less than even the normal for India—but cotton has a habit, eventually, of making its weight felt whether hedged or not.

Weather in the crop districts during the week has so far been excellent. There is another depression from the Bay of Bengal which crossed the coast again near Calcutta. The previous depression, after taking a similar course turned north-east and left the cotton tracts unharmed. At the moment there seems to be some possibility of rain in the Central Provinces and the weather map warrants attention.

On the whole however, the crop outlook is satisfactory.

Export enquiry has recently been much less active and our conclusion is still that sufficient difficulty will be experienced in marketing the crop to warrant sales of Indians against purchases of American's in Liverpool.

WHY THEN USE CHEAP ORDINARY HAIR OILS MADE OF WHITE OIL OR SPIRIT WHICH ARE EQUALLY HARMFUL?

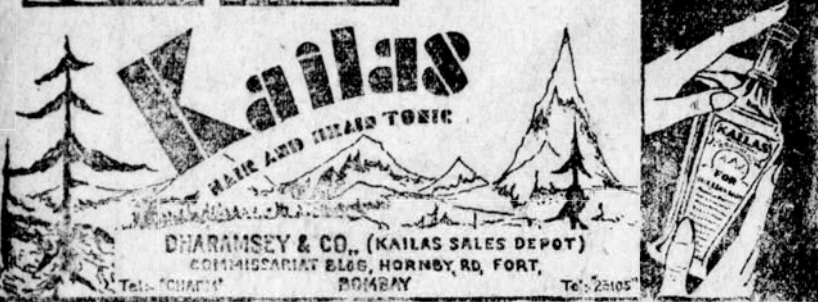

You cannot afford to take chances with your hair. Beautiful hair is your greatest asset in life. Once your hair loses its colour and its natural glossy lustre through the use of cheap doubtful preparations, there is nothing that can restore its youthful colour. That is why wise men and women select their hair oil with care. They realize that cheap oils especially those made of white oil and spirit, though they cost less, cause irreparable loss in beauty and appearance.

KAILAS is a purely herbal compound containing the largest proportion of concentrated extract of Brahmi which in conjunction with other precious herbs acts with double vigour on the brain. By a special expensive process 100% pure coconut oil is used in the place of white oil and spirit, and a pure floral perfume, in place of harmful alcoholic scent. Made in a well-equipped modern laboratory under the supervision of expert chemists, you can rely on KAILAS PURITY and efficacy.

Truly a Toilet Requisite of the moderns and a marvellous specific for all hair, scalp and brain troubles - it keeps the hair, smooth and brilliant, brain well-nourished, and scalp free from scales and dandruff. Try a bottle. It costs but a trifle more than ordinary hair oils.

AN ALL-INDIA SENSATION

Garbo, The Barrymores, Crawford, &c., Enact A Stunning Film Of 'Grand Hotel' At The Capitol

(By A CRITIC.)

Lost there be any doubts about it, there is one, and only one, "Grand Hotel." Vicki Baum's play and novel have been transferred into the talkies at the Capitol with great talent and with a cast of such high-powered names that it almost amounts to ostentation.

Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, John and Lionel Barrymore, Wallace Beery—these are only a few of them, and believe it or not the greatest of these is Mata Hari Garbo in the role of the dancer played on the stage by Eugenie Leontovich.

I have never seen Miss Garbo play with such variety, such alertness, such genuine pathos. I haven't been her greatest admirer in the talkies, but I am won over this time. In a cast ranging from such stage training as is represented by the distance between Lionel and John and a host of others, she stands out like some goddess—trapped with her tragedies and happinesses in the rooms and corridors of the Grand Hotel.

It is substantially the same as the play, but not meaning to be catty about it, one does get the feeling of a hotel from the screen that one didn't get from the stage. Quick cinematic shifts from one room to another, to corridors, to lobbies, offer a panoramic effect, an effect of completeness. And after all a hotel is the theme, the idea and the meat of "Grand Hotel." Here the hotel is really dramatized pictorially—and quite brilliantly under the expert hand of Edmund Goulding.

With all the names, "Grand Hotel" is not the customary star fight. It represents beautifully orchestrated playing. There are five of the biggest names in films in it—one, the biggest, namely, Mlle. Garbo—yet no role has been altered to any degree for the sake of spacing. All play rightly and truly, and if the stage cast had no stars, at least, the talkie is equally well played with a host of them. It is Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer on parade. Not in the history of films have so many and such great stars been placed within firing distance of one another in a dramatic production. Other films have made stars out of practically every member of their casts; but this one offers them ready made.

In the rooms and corridors of the Grand Hotel in Berlin a handful of inmates find their lives becoming entangled—a handful of people out of all those swarming in and out of the hotel. Meeting through some trick of circumstance the life lines of all are caught in a knot and the tragedy and happiness of one becomes closely related to the happiness and tragedy of another.

There are: (1) Grusinskaya, the dancer (Miss Garbo); her life line becomes entangled with that of the Baron with whom she falls in love. She does not even discover his murder when she leaves to meet him at the train for Vienna.

(2) The Baron (John Barrymore); he has become a hotel thief and is at the mercy of criminals to whom he is in debt. He endeavours to steal the dancer's pearls, falls in love with her, and is later murdered when he steals the purse of the rich industrialist.

(3) Flammchen, the stenographer (Joan Crawford); she falls in love with the Baron.

(4) General Director Preysing (Wallace Beery); he kills the Baron when he finds him in his rooms endeavouring to make off with his purse, and is led off to jail and to court.

(5) Kringelein, the clerk (Lionel Barrymore); he has saved and worked all his life, and when doctors tell him that he is about to die, he comes to the Grand Hotel to splurge at the end of his life line.

This is the assortment of characters and they are a goodly diversified lot. Quickly the movie causes their lives to cross. Quickly it brings all the subplots of "Grand Hotel" into one growing dramatic plot. It is faster than the play, faster, of course, as to movement, as well as faster to plot movement. It offers diversity, genuine atmosphere, excitement and a truly touching quality. True, some of the scenes of the play have been a bit sentimentalized, and others are played for a different effect, but the specter of the hotel is the plot and the people—the specter of the hotel that rises from the movie like some guiding destiny at one moment, causing his subjects pain, and at another, the joy that life sometimes offers.

"HELL'S ANGELS" AT PALACE TALKIES

A Spectacular Aviation Thriller

"Hell's Angels," United Artists thriller will be shown from Saturday at the Palace Talkies, near Byculla Railway Station. The stars include Jean Harlow, the "Plantinum Blonde" beauty of the screen, James Hall, Ben Lyon and other noted stars who enact a love story in the midst of all the horror and tragedy of war-time incidents.

For the first time, a colossal film spectacle is presented without faked or processed shots. Practically all the incidents of the picture are based on occurrences during the world war. A Zeppelin raid on London and the exploits of Baron Von Richtofen's "Flying Circus" are two tremendous high-lights of the picture which tells of the supreme heroism and sacrifice for patriotism.

The largest air fleet ever brought together except by governments was assembled by Howard Hughes, the producer and director, and flown in "Hell's Angels." Exactly 87 planes, including more than a score of true war-time ships, a German Gotha bombing plane and a German dirigible, took part in this stupendous air drama. Fifty planes are shown in action simultaneously on the screen. More than 100 pilots participated in the making of "Hell's Angels" and more than dol. 2,000,000 was expended on the air scenes alone. More than 3,000,000 feet of film were ground through "Hell's Angels" cameras during the three years required to film the picture. The cost of celluloid alone was upwards of dol. 300,000 or more than cost of the average film production. More than

"SURRENDER" AT ROXY

Powerful Fox Drama Of Human Pathos

Warner Baxter, noted for his flair for romantic roles, and Leila Hyams whose emotional portrayals have put her in the front rank of screen-actresses lead a splendid cast including Ralph Bellamy, C. Aubrey Smith and Alexander Kirkland in "Surrender," a powerful Fox drama coming this week to the Roxy Talkies, New Queen's Road.

The film is based on the Pierre Benoit's popular novel "Axelle." The period of 1917 and 1918 during the last world-war provides the background for the story whose settings include a desolate prison-camp on the icy shores of the Baltic, Out of the bitterness of conflict, the despair of a girl who sees her fiancé off to a front from which she instinctively knows he will never return, and the baffled hopes and repressed emotions of half-starved prisoners. Director William Howard has woven a brilliant, absorbing and intensely human drama.

Here is a war picture, but without the grim spectacle of war—a love story between a French prisoner and a daughter of the Prussian aristocracy that rings true despite its grim setting in a rickety castle and a desolate prison camp a tale of emotion and hope as powerful as it is restrained. This Fox drama is declared to be one of the really great pictures of the recent years replete with romance and thrilling incidents.

20,000 persons, including cameramen, technicians and players, contributed to the making of "Hell's Angels."

WALTER HUSTON SCORES NEW HIT IN RIALTO FILM

The truth provides a more tense, dramatic, courageous entertainment than fiction.

The lawless West is shown "in the raw" in "Law and Order," the Universal drama which opened an engagement at the Rialto to-day. We do not think the screen has ever shown a more interesting or more realistic representation of the rugged days on the great American frontier.

The scenes of the picture are laid in Tombstone, Arizona, and the story deals with the struggle to bring about law and order in a town which is to a great extent under the control of the lawless element "Law and Order" is more than a mere screen drama; based on fact it brings thrilling history to life. The story comes to a close in an exciting blaze of guns—and three men ride off toward Mexico.

The large cast is one of unusual excellence. Walter Huston plays the role of the fearless peace officer of the town; Harry Carey is seen as one of his old friends and assistants. All are exceptional in their characterizations and fine work is done by Russell Hopton, Raymond Hatton, Andy Devine, Russell Simpson and Ralph Ince.

"Law and Order" is a pictureization of a novel by W. R. Burnett, and is said to have its basis in fact. Director Edward Cahn has made of it a picture which cannot fail to thrill and entertain you. A comedy and cartoon with "Strange As It Seems" is included in the programme.

WELLINGTON TALKIES

"A Holy Terror" With George O'Brien

George O'Brien opens a new bag of tricks in his latest Fox Picture "A Holy Terror" which runs to-night and this week at the Wellington Talkies, Dhobi Talao. George O'Brien, who is an expert horseman and a daring air pilot fits in exactly with his new Fox Drama. He performs hazardous tricks on horseback, and crashes his air plane into the bath-room of a lovely and beautiful girl Sally Ellers, a most unique manner of introducing oneself. This incident however leads to romance and happiness though in the meantime the hero meets with a series of adventures. O'Brien portrays the role of a young society photographer who attempts to run the earth the man he has reason to believe shot and killed his father. The tale takes him to Wyoming, where he finds his man, whose identity startles George in a climax too good to reveal here. The programme includes a very hilarious talking-singing-dancing musical comedy "Are You There?" with three new song hits.

AMERICAN COTTON MARKETS

Southern Hedge Selling Followed By Foreign Buying

MACFADDEN ESTIMATE CROP 11,399,000 BALES

Bombay, Nov. 4. The peak volume of hedge selling large. Trade buying extensive on the decline. Good demand from merchants for actual cotton at high basis. Cotton goods trade slow. General inclination to await election result. Average of private estimates indicates around 11-1/2 millions bales Government report next Wednesday.

Yesterday the New York cotton futures market was nervous and irregular, awaiting next Government Bureau report. Prices declined on Southern Hedge selling but later advanced on foreign buying. Messrs. Macfadden Bros. estimate crop 11,399,000 bales. Prices opened at about the highest level at a rise of 4 points but declined 6 points on Southern hedge selling. There is utter absence of speculation enterprise and the market closed at a net decline of 4 to 1 point. Spot cotton prices closed unchanged at 6.10c.

The New Orleans cotton futures market was quiet and closed at a decline of 2 points. Spot cotton prices closed unchanged at 6.04c.

The Liverpool cotton futures market opened at a decline of 1 point. In New York trade buying improved on outside demand for distant months. Hedge selling was light but the market was narrow awaiting Election and Bureau Report. In Liverpool local support was favourable and the market closed quiet at a decline of 2 points. Middling American Spot cotton prices advanced 5 points at 5.42d. per lb.

East Indian cotton futures market closed unchanged and Egyptian cotton prices closed at a rise of 1 to 3 points.

The Alexandria cotton futures market was steady and closed at a rise of 25 to 9 points.

Messrs. Thos. Smith and Co's Liverpool friends state: Weather conditions in the Cotton Belt have not been favourable—cold weather and rains have interrupted picking. There now seems no chance of an increase in the next Government Report—possibly a slight reduction in the estimated production is to be expected—win of the destruction of young bolls and consequently the elimination of a top crop.

As we have so often previously pointed out, 6 cents per lb. is not a remunerative price to the grower, especially when produced on a large scale and labour is required for the harvesting of the crop. The small farmer who grows a rotation of crops is obliged to include Cotton in his fields—labour costs nothing and apart from ginning and baling, the return possibly just about pays the rent or interest on his land.

During the last few days there has been a disposition to "sell" the market, because a year ago prices in Liverpool were some 60 points less than those now ruling. Consumption of American Cotton at that time was expected to be only about 10 million bales, with a rate of exchange of about 100. The difference in the rate of exchange between that date and this accounts for some 65 Liverpool points, and the fact that the last season's consumption was over 12,300,000 bales, with a large prospective consumption this season, obviously does not bear comparison. It is only a few weeks ago that the Liverpool market literally dragged up values in the American markets to 95 cents. With a return of confidence, especially on the New York Stock Exchange, higher prices are quite probable and we therefore, remain of opinion that purchases should be made on all recessions.

THE FLY'S MISSION

THE mission of the fly is to spread disease. The danger from flies cannot be ignored when it is proved that typhoid increases as flies increase. Typhoid practically disappears when cold weather comes on and the flies die. Flies also carry many other fatal diseases—kill them the quick, easy way—spray Flit.

Flit kills flies, mosquitoes, fleas, ants, moths, bed bugs, roaches and their eggs. Flit spray is deadly to insects but harmless to people. Easy to use. Does not stain. Do not confuse Flit with other insecticides.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEWS

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Bombay, November 4.
MONEY.

The Money Market continued steady with call funds placed at 2 per cent. almost throughout the week. Although treasury bill renewals during the week amounted to Rs. 150 lacs against maturities of Rs. 21 lacs only, sales of these bills were offset by purchases of sterling by Government amounting to a million sterling. The trade demand continues to rise and shows an increase of about Rs. 126 lacs as per the latest statement of the Imperial Bank. Government have repaid the balance of Rs. 50 lacs, thus completely liquidating their borrowings for Ways and Means advances. The following are the fixed deposit rates:—
One to two months 2 per cent.;
3 months 2 1/4 per cent. and 6 months 3 per cent.

IMPERIAL BANK.

The statement of the Imperial Bank of India as of 28th October 1932 shows an increase of Rs. 56.53 lacs in the cash balance of the Bank now standing at Rs. 27,01,73,000 as compared with Rs. 11.69 crores at this time last year. The percentage of cash to liabilities is 35.64, an increase of 0.66 per cent. over last week. Cash credits show a small increase of Rs. 3.97 lacs, while Loans and Inland bills discounted are down by Rs. 2.01 lacs and by Rs. 50.25 lac respectively. Government deposits have risen by Rs. 190.15 lacs to Rs. 8.15 crores probably due to the excess of treasury sales over maturities, while Other Deposits have receded by Rs. 175.76 lacs to Rs. 66.14 crores. The bank rate continues unchanged at 4 per cent.

GILT-EDGED MARKET.

The tone of the gilt-edged market was erratic following advices from London, where the issue of a third loan in succession to the extent of £300 million caused sharp fluctuations in the market both in Home as well as India sterling stocks. 3 1/2 per cent. India sterling loans touched the high level of 293 and the quotation in the local market rose to Rs. 76 1/4. A setback occurred at this stage with a fall of 12 in 3 1/2 per cent. sterling loan to 281 and the rupee paring declined to Rs. 73 1/2. There was, however, a recovery to Rs. 74, but again receded to Rs. 73 1/2 at the close. The quotation for other scrips moved with the changes in 3 1/2 per cent. Paper, 5 per cent. 1945-55 Loan closed at Rs. 106 1/8; 1935's at Rs. 101 1/2 and 1933's at Rs. 101 1/5. 1939/44 Loan improved to Rs. 101. 6 per cent. 1933/36 Bonds quietened to Rs. 101 1/4 and 5 1/2 per cent. 1938-40 loan remained unchanged at Rs. 103. 6 1/2 per cent. Bom. Dev. Loan receded to Rs. 106 1/4 and Treasury Bonds to Rs. 105. 4 per cent. 1960/70 Loan steadied to Rs. 84 1/2 and 1934-37 Loan to Rs. 97. 4 1/2 per cent. 1955/60 Loan improved to Rs. 94 1/2 and 1934 bonds to Rs. 100 1/2.

The British Government announced on 1st Novr. the issue of a third loan in succession for £300 million bearing interest at 3 per cent. the issue price 97 1/2 with redemption at par in 1948-53. This issue provides for repayment of £165 million of the 5 per cent. unconverted portion of the War Loan, and £114 million of 5 per cent. Treasury Bonds. The total savings of the whole series of conversion operations since the end of June aggregate about £38 million.

EXCHANGE.

The sterling exchange market was steady but dull during the early part of the week, but a firmer tone was manifest after the announcement of the result of this week's tenders for sterling, applications for which amounted to over £9 million and the allotment being only 10 per cent. at 1s. 6-5/32. Sellers of ready T.T. quoted at 1s. 6-1/8 with few buyers under 1s. 6-11/64d. The export of gold together with the seasonal merchandise export bills support this market. The enquiry for remittances on the other hand is comparatively small. The forward market was also steady and the following quotations obtained therein:—
Up to 15th January 1-6 1/8;
February 1-6 3/32; March/April 1-6 1/16 and May 1-6 1/32.
The sterling-dollar quotation improved during the week from

Dol. 27-1/2 to Dol. 33 1/4-1/8 and closed at Dol. 3.28 3/4. French francs moved between 83.56 and 84.25. The Belga closed at 23.61 and the Italian lira at 64.25.

A Press Communique of the 2nd instant states that tenders to the amount of £9,815,000 at 1s. 6-5/32 were received and allotted approximately 10 per cent. £1,000,000 will be offered for tender on Wednesday, the 9th November on the same conditions as previously announced.

Another communique of the 1st instant states that sterling purchases by Government during the week ending 29th October amounted to £1,030,000 and since 1st April 1932 to date to £13,406,000; the net remittances to the Home Treasury being £10,371,000 after excluding the transfers from Reserves.

GOLD.

Prices in the gold market were maintained till Tuesday when a sharp rally occurred in the London New York cross rate causing a decline in the price of gold in the local market by as much as 6 annas to Rs. 30/8. At this level a reaction occurred and the cross rate eased from dol. 3.32-1/2 to dol. 3.29-1/4 and the gold price rose and closed at Rs. 30-12. The volume of business in ready was a fair sized one and the shipment this week is expected to be quite large. The shipment by last week's mail amounted to Rs. 69.75 lakhs and per S. S. Britannia which sailed on 27th ultimo to Rs. 59.58 lakhs. Business in the forward market is however negligible. Sovereign prices moved in sympathy with gold between Rs. 19-8 and Rs. 19-3 for ready. The quotation for gold in London after improving from 124s. 3d to 125s. 8d eased again to the former level and closed at 125s. 4d. The daily offtake continues at the small figures of 2000 tolas and stocks are estimated at 2 lakhs tolas. The highest and lowest rates during the week amounted to Rs. 30-14 and Rs. 30-7-9 for ready and 14th November settlement. The total imports during the week amounted to Rs. 151,547 in bar and coin.

SILVER.

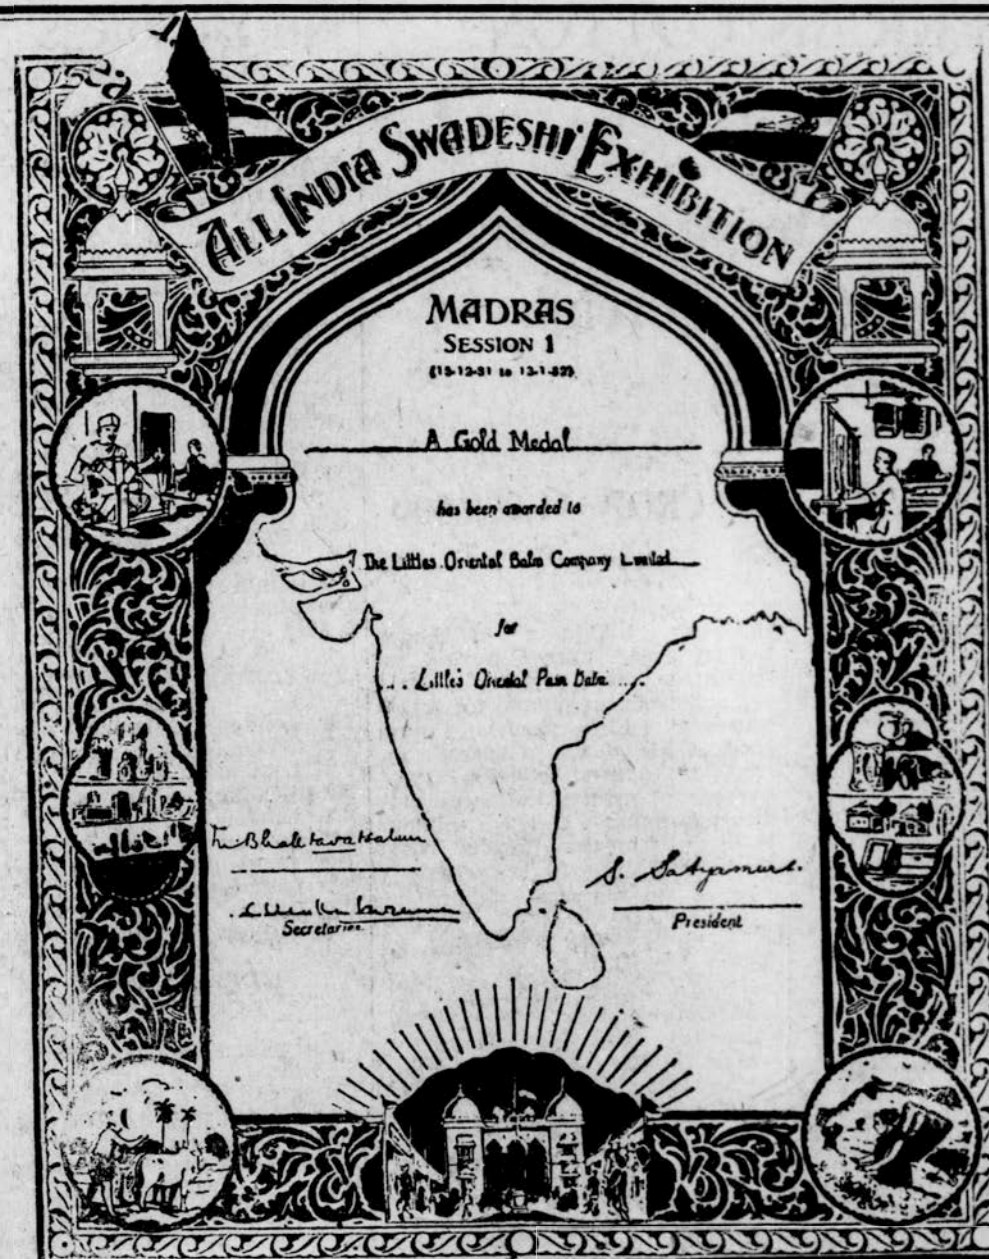

The silver market was steady throughout the week with minor day to day fluctuations. The price of ready improved from Rs. 56-3 to Rs. 56-9 on Monday and after fluctuating between this rate and Rs. 56-5 closed at Rs. 56-7. The movements in the Shanghai and London markets being 1/8d on either side of 1s. 9-5/8 and the London quotations also showed little change, ready moving between 18-3/16d and 17-15/16d and forward between 18-1/4d and 18-1/16d. Business in the forward market was small. The daily offtake shows a slight improvement to about 30 bars owing to the Hindu New Year with stocks heavy at about 10,500 bars. In our market the highest and lowest rates were Rs. 56-12 and Rs. 56-3 for ready, Rs. 56-15 and Rs. 56-6 for 18th November settlement and Rs. 57-3 and Rs. 56-12 for 19th December settlement. The incoming mail is expected to bring £29,000 silver. Inclusive of these arrivals and exclusive of the present week's shipment the total visible supply from London to India is about Rs. 34,000. The total imports during the week amounted to 689 bars and Rs. 19,172 in coin.

SHARES.

Barring a slight recession in prices in mid-week, cotton mill shares maintained almost last week's closing throughout. The volume of turnover was small and largely confined to inter-bazar operations. The following are the fluctuations in some of the leaders:—Bombay Dyeing Rs. 666/4-660-562/8; Century Rs. 203/12-198/12; Central India Rs. 275-271/4; Crescent Rs. 40-38/2; P. & O. "Yugantar"—New Marathi Play On Bombay Stage

A scene from "Yugantar"—a new Marathi play by Prof. Phadke produced for the first time tonight in Bombay, Mrs. Hirabai Barodekar in the role of the heroine "Kanta" and Suresh Babu as "Ravikanta".

"YUGANTAR" ON
BOMBAY STAGE

New Social Play By Mrs.
Hirabai Barodekar's
Operatic Company

The new social play "Yugantar" (New Era) billed for tonight (Saturday) and Sunday afternoon at the New Elphinstone Theatre by Mrs. Hirabai Barodekar's operatic company should attract crowded houses.
The play depicts, as its very title suggests, a conflict between youth and love on the one hand, and aristocracy and tyrannous authority on the other.

The events take place in an Indian State, where owing to the continued absence of the old Maharaja away in Europe, the Minister wields power and indulges in an orgy of repression. Ravikanta, a subject of the State, who is an eminent research scholar, submits his new discovery, a serum to the body of scientists at Geneva for the prize they have announced, and also champions the public cause by launching a vigorous temperance movement.

He loves Kanta, the beautiful, and accomplished daughter of a Sardar, who, however, proposes to give in marriage to the Minister.

The first four acts of the play lead you through striking situations, and when the curtain is rung down at the close of the fourth act Ravikant is arrested, the Minister declares his intention of taking Kanta for his wife by force and orthodoxy and old-tradition seem for a time to triumph. But the fifth act brings about a sudden dramatic change.

The old Maharaja dies in Europe and the prince who is a man of liberal and advanced democratic views, succeeds to the throne.

Mrs. Hirabai in the role of Kanta is at her best supported by an excellent cast including his two sisters Mr. Kamalabai and Miss Saraswatibai and brother Suresh Babu. The play is undoubtedly one of the best entertainments on the Bombay stage.

in the Home—

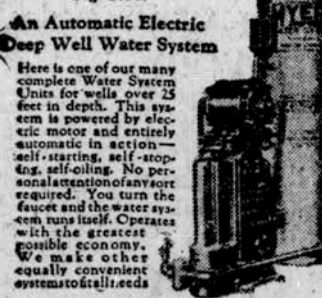

Running Water
at the turn of a faucet!

THE farm home equipped with a reliable MYERS Water System is not only safer, pleasanter, more convenient—it is a more productive home. The folks who live in it have better health, more energy and more time to accomplish things. They can do more and earn more. Even the livestock on the place responds to the plentiful supply of pure fresh water that is made available.

MYERS
Self-Operating Water Systems.

Cows given access to drinking cups in their stanchions, produce more milk and more butter fat than when they are watered at outside troughs. Other livestock responds equally well. A MYERS Water System on the farm pays for itself as surely in dollars and cents as it does in convenience and comfort. Because of their staunch reliability, MYERS Water Systems will give you running water at the lowest possible cost per gallon.

Stricter Control
Suggested

Bombay, Friday.

At the monthly meeting of the Bombay Municipal Corporation to be held on Thursday, November 10, the following important resolutions will be placed on the agenda:

Mr. J. B. Boman-Behram:—"That the Corporation are of opinion that as the nuisance and consequent danger to public health on account of the numerous lepers going about the streets of Bombay are on the increase, adequate steps should be taken to minimise the nuisance and thus avert the menace to the health of the citizens, and that the Medical Relief and Public Health Committee be requested to consider, in consultation with the Commissioner, the question in all its aspects and to submit for the approval of the Corporation a suitable draft representation to Government requesting them to take adequate measures, legislative as well as administrative, to effectively check this nuisance and danger to public health."

Dr. Khurshed J. J. Cursetji:—"That the Commissioner be requested to report to us whether adequate arrangements have been made by him for the inspection of hair cutting saloons, barbers' shops, etc., in the city, in view of the fact that there is a serious danger of diseases being transmitted through the use of insufficiently cleaned instruments, towels, etc., at these shops, and he be also requested to enforce properly license conditions so as to protect the public from this danger and to keep these places in a hygienic condition."

Mr. M. J. Dandekar:—"That the Markets and Gardens Committee be requested to report, in consultation with the Municipal Commissioner, as to the feasibility of extending the seating accommodation in the Dadar municipal fish and vegetable market near the B. B. & C. I. Railway Station as it is very much overcrowded in the morning and evening."

GYMNASIA FOR CITY Miserable Plight Of Bombay

Bombay, Friday.

Mr. D. M. Kalyanpurker, proprietor and director of the Bombay Gymnastic Institute, in a letter to the Mayor, points out that the question of introducing compulsory physical training in municipal schools has been under the consideration of the Corporation for the last five years, and the committee to whom the question has been referred have not yet finished their work. He hopes that the school children will have compulsory physical training very soon. As regards the health of the general public, however, there are not sufficient and efficient gymnasia in the city to which people can go during leisure hours for the development of their bodies. In Germany 99 per cent. of the population are members of physical culture clubs and gymnasia which are conducted and patronized by welfare societies, municipalities and the Government. Stadia are also built in important centres for the purpose of holding tournaments. The Soviet Movement in Czechoslovakia with mass physical culture of more than seventy-five thousand athletes, should be an eye-opener to the leaders of India.

UNHEALTHY HABITS

In the absence of healthy habits the masses are addicted to various vices with the result that their health and industrial production have suffered terribly. Mr. Kalyan suggests that a special committee may be appointed by the Corporation to consider the question of starting a municipal college of physical culture, conducting a model gymnasium in each ward, payment of grants-in-aid to well conducted gymnasia, giving financial aid to free vacation physical culture camps, erecting stadia, a holding public tournaments. He states further that he is prepared to give his evidence regarding the details of the above mentioned subjects before such a committee and suggests further that public physical culture demonstrations should be held in Bombay in important centres such as Victoria Garden, Sir Pherozeshah Mehta Gardens, etc., in co-operation with the

HANDBILL AND EXCOMMUNICATION

Injunction Suit In High Court
DISPUTE IN HALAI MEMON CASTE

Bombay, Friday.

Mr. Justice Mirza on the Original Side of the High Court, heard a notice of motion in connection with a suit filed by Ahmed Abdulla Musa against Cassam Ahmed Barwadia and eight others.

Sir Chimanlal Seelvad and Mr. Barot, instructed by Gullam Ali Noorani and Co. solicitors, appeared for the plaintiff, Mr. Davar and Mr. Chagla, instructed by Messrs. Matubhai Jamietram and Madan appeared for the defendant.

JAMAT MEETING

The defendants who are the president and members of the managing committee of the Jamat called a meeting of the Jamat which was also attended by the plaintiff, who belongs to the same community. The plaintiff was asked to disclose the name of the writer of the handbill. He refused, but offered to give an explanation, which he was not allowed to give.

The defendants, it was alleged, was there and they excommunicated the plaintiff. The plaintiff next filed this suit, challenging the validity of the resolution of excommunication and asking for an injunction to restrain the defendants from giving effect to the same. In connection with this suit, Mr. Justice Wadia some days ago, granted an interim injunction as asked for by the plaintiff.

RELIGIOUS FUNCTION.

After that, it appears, the plaintiff had occasion to invite the majlis (caste people) to attend a religious function at his place. He requested the first defendant to send the "bangal" (man who conveys the invitations) but the defendant, it was alleged, refused to comply with his request.

When the notice of motion came up for hearing before Mr. Justice Mirza, the parties came to a settlement. The following are terms of the consent-order passed by the judge:—

By consent, all matters in dispute between the parties are to be referred to the arbitration of Sardar Suleman Cassam Mitha and Mr. Elias Bar-at-Law. The arbitrators will make their award within one month. In case the arbitrators differ the matter will be decided by the court as umpire. The defendants will give facility to plaintiff to attend the Majlis of the Jamat and employ the Jamat "Bangal" whenever occasion arises pending arbitration. The interim injunction will continue. Plaintiff will not take any steps against the defendants for contempt of court with regard to injunction, with liberty in such event for the arbitrators to take the alleged contempt into consideration.

ture should demand far greater attention than singing. The Medical Relief Committee resolved that it be recommended to the corporation that the letter be recorded.

PAYING FOR THE RIOTS

Corporation Demand Change Of Practice

LANDLORDS' DIFFICULTIES

BOMBAY, Friday. In a letter to the Municipal Corporation, regarding the collection of riot compensation through municipal agency, the Commissioner refers to a letter from the local Government inviting "more detailed proposals" on the following two suggestions, which have been made in the past: (1) that the Municipal Commissioner should be allowed to add a lump percentage to the amount of the tax to make up for exemptions, short recoveries and cost of collection, and (2) that steps should be taken to minimise the difficulties caused by exemptions and says:

With regard to (1), I might state that short recovery of the compensation awarded by the Chief Presidency Magistrate is due, apart from normal reasons, to the procedure followed in respect of the grant of exemptions from the levy of the compensation. Under Section 45 (1) (b) of the City of Bombay Police Act, 1902, the compensation is to be recovered "by an addition to the general tax", and under Section 46 (1) of the Act the addition to the general tax is to be recovered from persons liable therefor "in the same manner as the general tax due from them."

PRESENT PROCEDURE.

Now according to the successive orders issued by the Chief Presidency Magistrate in that behalf, claims for exemption from the levy of the compensation are required to be made "within a period of thirty days of the first demand for payment of the addition to the general tax", the onus of proving such a claim to the satisfaction of the Municipal Commissioner being placed on the person making it. The procedure followed for collecting the compensation accordingly is to apportion the total amount amongst the owners, other than those exempted, of properties liable to it, in proportion to their rateable value and to issue bills for the amount to be collected from each owner. The claims for exemption preferred within thirty days of the presentation of the bills are then investigated and the bills in respect of the admitted claims cancelled. The result is that the total amount of compensation collected falls short of the amount to be recovered to the extent of the exemptions granted.

In order to meet the above deficits, it has been suggested in the past that the Municipal Commissioner should be authorised to add a lump percentage to the amount of compensation awarded by the Chief Presidency Magistrate. In 1922-23 and in 1924 an addition of five per cent. was made with the concurrence of the Chief Presidency Magistrate to the amount of compensation awarded by him. But as this addition was subsequently found to be unwarranted in law, the bills outstanding after the full amount of the compensation had been collected were cancelled so as to bring the recoveries within the limits authorized by the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

NON-RECOVERABLE DEBT.

I might, however, point out that the question of short recoveries howsoever arising is of no direct interest to the Corporation, as the Municipal Solicitors who were consulted in the matter advise as follows:

"Section 46 of the Police Act directs the method of recovery. That recovery is a personal recovery only and is a debt due by the persons pointed out and not recoverable out of the premises in respect of which the general tax was calculated. If therefore, one of these persons is unable to pay and still is personally liable for general tax in respect of premises, the additional general tax cannot be recovered from the premises. It follows therefore that a debt becoming irrecoverable from the person liable is not recoverable at all and our construction of the two Sections (45 and 46 of the Police Act) leads us to the opinion that the Municipal Commissioner in effecting recovery is merely an agent and cannot therefore be held liable for a non-recoverable debt."

INVESTIGATION OF CLAIMS.

In so far, however, as the short recovery arises out of a defective procedure followed in respect of the grant of exemptions, it can be obviated if the exemptions to be allowed were determined before the issue of bills instead of after their issue as at present. For this purpose, I would suggest that the instructions in the Chief Presidency Magistrate's order, which provide that a claim for exemption must be made within thirty days of the first demand for payment, should be altered so as to require that claims for exemption should be submitted to the Chief Presidency Magistrate within thirty days after publication of his order. The claims would then be investigated by the Municipal Commissioner, who would apportion the amount of compensation to be collected amongst the residue of the property owners found liable. I recommend that this suggestion may be brought to the notice of Government.

COST OF COLLECTION.

The question of the cost of collection is of more immediate interest to the Corporation. It was pointed out to the Chief Presidency Magistrate in 1925 that there was no reason why the municipality, which was more often than not a sufferer by the disturbances, should in addition, be mulcted in respect of the expenses of collecting the compensation. The Chief Presidency Magistrate agreed with this view and suggested that the Corporation should press for an amendment of the City of Bombay Police Act by the addition of the following proviso to clause (b) of Section 45 of that Act:—

"Provided that the Chief Presidency Magistrate may require the Municipal Commissioner to recover in the manner set forth above a further amount of 10 per cent. of the total amount in order to cover exemptions granted under sub-section (2) and the cost of recovery of the total amount awarded. It shall be within the discretion of the Chief Presidency Magistrate to decide what proportion of the additional percentage to be recovered shall go towards the cost of recovery of the total amount awarded."

A proposal to amend the law in the manner suggested was submitted to the Corporation under the Municipal Commissioner's letter, dated 2nd September, 1925, but it was lost sight of in the larger issues raised by the Corporation, viz. the repeal of Section 45 of the City Police Act or relieving the Corporation of the odium of recovering the compensation. As these issues have been negatived by Government, it is necessary to reconsider the original suggestion.

INDIRECT LIABILITY.

The cost of collecting the compensation must obviously be borne by those from whom the compensation is recoverable and not by the general tax-payer. As matters stand at present, the latter is indirectly made liable to it by throwing the entire cost of collection on the Municipality. The preliminary work in connection with the bills for the addition to the general tax is laborious; while the work of collection is found to be extremely difficult owing to the unpopularity of the impost.

Delay in effecting recoveries has been due to certain legal difficulties arising out of the terms of the orders, which have only recently been settled, and the orders revised. The number of bills required to be issued to collect the aggregate amount of Rs. 7,86,819 will be approximately 45,000. To this will have to be added further bills in connection with the communal riots of 1932, the damage caused by which has been on an unprecedented scale. The recovery of this accumulated bills will involve an enormous addition to the normal work of the department, and will necessitate additional staff for the preparation and issue of bills, as well as for their recovery. I would, therefore, propose that the suggestion made by the Chief Presidency Magistrate in 1925 may be adopted with a slight modification, and the City of Bombay Police Act amended, so as to empower the Chief Presidency Magistrate to add an amount of three per cent. to the amount of compensation, which the Municipal Commissioner is directed to collect, this additional amount being payable to the Municipality on account of the cost of collection.

EXEMPTIONS.

With regard to the other difficulties caused by exemptions, it may be mentioned that the effect of the exemptions hitherto granted by the Chief Presidency Magistrate is to exempt certain classes of persons, e.g., justices of the peace, title-holders, etc., from the payment of compensation. All properties belonging to these persons escape the levy although the properties may be actually occupied by persons not entitled to exemption; or, even by persons directly connected with the riots. On the other hand all properties, the owners of which are not exempted, are liable to pay compensation, although the properties are occupied by exempted persons, namely justices of the peace, title-holders, Government or municipal servants, etc. Several of these latter class owners have complained against the levy as being unwarranted to the extent of the exemption to which the tenants of these properties are entitled by the terms of the order.

In order to meet both the objections referred to above, it is suggested that the exemption to be allowed to justices of the peace, title-holders, etc., should be in respect of properties owned and occupied by them and should not extend, as at present, to properties owned by them but occupied by others who are not entitled to exemption. If the premises are partly occupied by persons, who are entitled to exemption and partly by those who are not, only those portions which are occupied by exempted persons should be exempted from the levy.

Secondly although under the law as stated above the compensation is to be recovered by an addition to the general tax, the exact proportion in which the addition is to be made in each case is not clearly specified in the statute. It should, therefore, be made clear that every addition to the general tax should be in proportion to the rateable value of properties or portions thereof not entitled to exemption.

TENANTS ESCAPE.

It will be seen from the foregoing remarks that while the object of the statute is to bring home their common responsibility to the residents of a locality where damage to person or property or both is caused in the prosecution of the common object of an unlawful assembly, this object is not infrequently defeated by reason of the fact that a pointed out above, persons residing in buildings owned by those who are exempted from payment of the compensation, escape the levy even though they may have been concerned in the riots. Even in respect of buildings, the owners of which are not granted exemption, the tenants whether culpable or otherwise, virtually escape the burden as the law provides no effective means to the landlord of passing on the burden of the tenants. The only means now available to him in the case of a tenant who disputes payment is by way of suit; but few landlords would put themselves to the trouble of filing numerous petty suits against their tenants. It is therefore, essential that provision should be made, by law that persons who have paid to the Municipal Commissioner any addition to the general tax in respect of any properties should, if they themselves were not in occupation of them during the period of the disturbance for which compensation has been awarded, be entitled to recover the amounts so paid from the persons in occupation of the properties during the said period.

Finally, the liability for payment of the addition to the general tax should attach to the property and if the property changes hands, the new owner should not under any circumstances be entitled to exemption.

FALLACY OF TAX.

Speaking generally, the Municipal Solicitors point out that Sections 45 and 46 of the City of Bombay Police Act are fraught with difficulties not only in their application but also in their construction, and that a fallacy underlies these two Sections, that the general tax is a tax on persons, whereas in point of fact, under the Municipal Act the tax is a tax on lands and buildings and only recoverable to a certain extent against persons. This fallacy, they add, is imported in the Chief Presidency Magistrate's order, inasmuch as the Municipal Commissioner is directed to recover the amount of compensation awarded by an addition to the general tax, which shall be imposed and levied proportionately to the assessment on premises in the ward specified, while the exemptions granted under the order are personal. Such exemptions are, strictly speaking, not capable of application in construing the direction, because the assessment is an assessment on land and buildings and not on persons.

The Municipal Solicitors, therefore, suggest that these two sec-

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1932

THE MESSAGE OF ALLAHABAD

The progress of the Unity Conference at Allahabad is so far hopeful enough, considering the difficulties it has had to encounter. Those difficulties are indeed many but there is ample evidence of a welcome endeavour to surmount them. Despite a number of preliminary conferences among Hindu and Sikh leaders, no formula could be evolved that could be acceptable to the Conference as a whole by the time the Conference met on Wednesday. But fortunately they made amends by evincing a genuine desire to start negotiations with a determination to arrive at a settlement.

DETERMINED TO SUCCEED.

If the perverse attitude of the few outside the Conference who said: "Our minimum claims first and negotiations next", were adopted by any of those who attended the Conference, no negotiations could have even commenced. But those who are now busy at Allahabad are infused with a truly national outlook and are determined to succeed. The speeches of the prominent leaders on the first day are instinct with a spirit of unity that cannot be entirely barren of results. Most of them were also calculated to impress upon the delegates and through them upon the country that our disunion is the main cause of all our present sufferings and humiliations and that if we could only compose our communal differences we could compel Government to accept our demands.

INSPIRING APPEAL.

Not less impressive were the various messages that were sent to the Conference by its friends and well-wishers. Of these easily the most touching was that of Shrimati Kamala Nehru who from her sick bed appealed to the delegates to realise that if the number of Sikhs or Muslims is a little more or a little less in the Legislature it is not going to ruin the country whereas fratricidal fights have disgraced and are ruining it. The following words in the message must appeal strongly to every delegate, be he Hindu, or Muslim or Sikh:

The Hindu community claims to capture others with love. Here is an occasion to prove it. The Muslims claim to be generous. Here is the test for their generosity. The Sikhs call themselves brave, but a brave people must depend on their own strength and not fight for a few seats in the Councils."

ELDER BROTHER'S DUTY.

Any of the three communities may be the saviour of the country by realising the message of Begum Alam who exhorts the Conference to remember that "parts gain with the whole." For ourselves we would only appeal to the Muslims and the Sikhs to slightly moderate their demands and to the Hindus to be a little more generous, as behoves the majority community or the elder brother of the family.

NO INSUPERABLE DIFFICULTY.

To come to the specific proposals that are before the Conference, it is said that the greatest obstacles in the way of a settlement are the problems of the Punjab and Sind. As regards the latter, it is now purely a question of finance. The Congress itself has accepted the separation of the province if the separated unit could be made self-supporting. Now, whatever may be present financial estimates of the province, there is such a thing as cutting the coat according to the cloth. If only the people of Sind consent not to be a burden on other provinces, we do not see why Sind should not be separated on that basis. Compelled by stress of circumstances to practice the utmost economy, Sind may be a lesson to the whole country.

REAL ISSUE.

The Punjab problem is certainly more complicated. We have suggested before a few considerations that may be helpful in the solution of the problem. We trust that these and several others will be given due consideration by all the parties concerned. The real issue that each party has to face is not which course is the ideal but which of the probable or inevitable courses is the best or the least bad. Surely, it is better far to concede a few points to a sister community than to prolong third party domination over all the communities and meekly to submit to an outsider's award, as a confession of our failure to compose our domestic differences.

"MANLY SPEECH."

Besides, once it is agreed that any reservation for a majority must be temporary and on the basis of joint electorates, such reservation ceases to be the intolerable evil that it otherwise would be. We earnestly hope that neither the Punjab question nor any other will be allowed to stand in the way of a settlement. Fortunately, the discussions at Allahabad are carried on in a spirit of 'Give and take' that betokens communal peace. "We will not quarrel. We refuse to accept defeat," said Maulana Shaukat Ali at the Conference. Dr. Moonje congratulated him for his "manly speech." The Conference is bereft of Gandhi's sage counsel, owing to Government's refusal to release him; but undaunted, the delegates are forging the best means of achieving true communal unity. "We will not accept defeat." That is the message of Allahabad.

Mobilise Against It

Strong efforts are being made by the bureaucracy to rush the Ottawa agreement through the Assembly, though it has met with universal opposition in the country. So far not a single association of Indian Merchants has commended the Ottawa deal as anything but one-sided and most prejudicial to the interests of India. The fact that special propaganda has been going on in the Anglo-Indian Press in favour of the Agreement ought to make Indians suspicious, particularly when they are told that it is more in the interests of this country than Great Britain. Government's Anglo-Indian supporters, whether merchants or Press have been at special pains to explain to Indians the benefits they will derive by giving preference to British manufacturers in Indian market necessarily by antagonising other countries, though they happen to be as good buyers of Indian produce as Great Britain. The persistent advocacy of the Anglo-Indian Press ought to make the Ottawa Agreement suspect in the eyes of all patriotic and honest Indians, and the speeches of some of the members of Parliament only confirm those suspicions.

TIMELY ACTION.

Constituted as it is at present the Assembly is likely to approve tamely anything that the Commerce Member may bring forward on behalf of the Government. A number of amendments will no doubt be moved but we have very few hopes of their being accepted. Mr. B. Das, the Chief Whip of the Nationalist Party has, however given notice of an amendment that "India is not prepared to consider any proposal for reciprocal trade benefits with the United Kingdom till such time as India is not given responsible Government" and to inform the Dominions that no trade agreement can be entered into with "any Dominion which does not concede to Indians settled in their territory equal rights of citizenship." At the present time India is a Dependency and she has no power to manage her affairs as she likes.

UNFAIR.

The Government do not reflect the opinion of the public and the Indian Delegation to Ottawa has appointed by the Government and consisted of such persons as were likely to support any official scheme. Nevertheless, when we are told by officials that India is on the eve of getting wide powers of self-government through the Round Table Conference, it is unfair to impose on her now a trade agreement with the help of the official bloc. A threat has already appeared in the local Anglo-Indian Press that should the Assembly reject the Government measure and the Council of State pass it "with acclamation" while the Governor-General in Council should not hesitate to certify it as in the interests of the police. This should make the public still more suspicious and doubtful whether it is really in the interests of India to accept such an agreement.

JUST BOMBAY PROTEST.

What is more Indian trade with Dominions is of a negligible quantity and quality and Indians are given most sorry treatment by most of them. Not only are they treated as undesirable, but every article is used to drive them out. We have only to speak of the South African Union, Canada and even Australia to convince our readers of the truth of our remarks. Mr. Das will, therefore, be perfectly right in insisting that we should give no preference to the goods of these Dominions which refuse to treat the nationals of this country as human beings. As the Indian merchants' Chamber rightly say in their representation these Colonies and Dominions do not give Indians even "elementary rights" and impose on them the "hardship of discriminatory legislation" and yet India is now asked to give them preference in her market. The suggestion is monstrous and no patriotic Indian will agree to it for a moment. British goods already receive preference in Indian market through the manipulation of exchange through tariffs and now by pegging the rupee to the Sterling Pound, however, is not satisfied with all this and wants more.

A WARNING.

Again as the Chamber say "can there really be a fair prolonged agreement between a politically unequal and a dependent country and long as there is no settlement of the political issues, so long as India is no self-governing, there can be no agreement between the United Kingdom and India." We entirely agree with these views expressed by the premier association of Indian Merchants, for "only a free legislative can freely make an agreement of this kind and that by passing such a legislation with the help of a tame majority the Government will be laying the foundations, not of settlement between India and the United Kingdom, but of prolonged bitterness." Let us hope the Government will take this grave warning to their heart when they try to impose their will on the country through a willing Assembly. If the agreement is ratified it will mean the ruin of Indian export trade and will antagonise the country with others. That must be avoided at all costs.

SOVIET'S ENGINEERING ENTERPRISE

First Fruits Of Five Years Plan

(From Our Own Correspondent)

MOSCOW, October 10.

Dneprostroi, the world's biggest electric station and dam form one of the basic enterprises of the Five-Year-Plan was officially announced to have reached completion to-day.

The opening ceremony took place in the yard of the electric station was attended by thousands of delegates, visitors and guests from all the important corners of U.S.S.R.

President Kalinin who stood on the tribune among the other leaders of the Ukraine and Russian Republics, congratulated the workers, engineers, employees, and all those who took part in the construction work of Dneprostroi addressing them as heroes of the country. The president then distributed various orders of distinctions among those who were found most active throughout the construction period.

EXPERTS HONOURED

Colonel Hugh Cooper, head consultant of the construction and other five foreign engineers were awarded the Soviet Order of the Red Banner. Cooper who is a well known American and is the head of the Russo-American Chambers of Commerce thanking the Government for its kind treatment said: "The Dniester dam and electric power house with capacity of 810,000 H.P. is not only the biggest plant of its kind all over the world but is a fine and unique example of heroism." The plant which is called the pride of Soviet Russia is named Lenin's Electric Plant.

INDUSTRIALISING WHOLE VALLEY.

The Dneprostroi which is a rare example of modern technique has been constructed under very hard conditions within the comparatively short period of five years at the cost of 230,000,000 roubles. This plant is constructed with a view to develop heavy industry in the valley of the river Dniester. A huge plan of industrialising this valley is in progress, three sets of factories and plants are being constructed in the vicinity of Kichkass to use the electric energy.

These are called metallurgical combine; aluminum combine and chemical combine. To-day we were shown several sections of these plants which are already in operation. The whole construction work is spread over an area of several meters. Besides the electric energy to be used in coal mines of the Danbass coal valley and for the agriculture within a radius of 150 kilometers.

"SOCIALIST CITIES."

Kichkass where the great dam is situated was some five years ago a small village. Thanks to the new construction work the old village has been entirely washed away from the earth surface and a new modern city with up to date living apartment houses and planned streets with a population of over 120,000 has grown up. The new city of Kichkass, like most of the new cities resulting by the Five-Year-Plan has nothing in common with the old Russian cities, these are named Socialist cities, and are built near the new plants and factories.

After the opening ceremony was over a workers demonstration took place. Workers and others marched past the tribune where the Soviet leaders were standing. Everybody looked happy and proud because he has contributed his share in the great work of fulfilling the Five-Year-Plan and laying the foundation of Socialism.

TRIBUTE TO GORKY

The Grand Opera House of Moscow presented a unique picture, the otherday when leaders and members of the Soviet Government and distinguished representatives of the Russian art, literature and science in the presence of the diplomatic corps, met together to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the literary activities of well known Russian writer Alexis Maxim Gorky.

The large auditorium thundered with applause, continuing more than ten minutes, when Gorky made his appearance. He was accompanied by Joseph Stalin, Vlachoslav Molotov, President Kalinin and later on by the famous French writer Henri Barbusse.

President Kalinin, opening the ceremonial meeting greeted the writer on behalf of the Soviet Government and people of the U.S.S.R., after which Mr. Stetsky a member of the executive of the Communist Party, spoke at length on the significance of Gorky as a writer, creator. Gorky was once again applauded when the orator concluding his speech said, "May Gorky, who is as young in spirit as the second Platylekka (Five-Year-Plan) live long and work among us."

Mr. Bubnov, the People Commissar for Education, was next to greet Gorky in the name of the scientific and educational institutions of U.S.S.R., saying that Gorky's contributions to the Russian literature and art were enormous.

Henry Barbusse followed Bubnov and in a lengthy speech emphasised the importance of the literary activities of Maxim Gorky.

INTERNATIONAL FAME.

Replying to numerous greetings and congratulations, Gorky, who was very much touched by the impressiveness of the proceedings said: "I consider your welcome as my debt which I shall have to pay, while I am still strong, I will try to do it the best I can. Could a writer be similarly honoured," continued Gorky, "anywhere else in the world? certainly not. Young writers must realise, and appreciate this attitude of the working class towards its writers and artists."

Maxim Gorky who comes from a poor family had to struggle hard for his livelihood for a considerable time. He achieved considerable popularity not only amongst the labouring masses but also among intellectuals of Russia. Count Tolstol and Anton Chekhov told his promising future. Gorky's work is translated in many a foreign language. His masterpiece "Mother" and many other short stories won for him international fame.

BRITISH DELEGATION TO R. T. C.

SANKEY CHAIRMAN IN PREMIER'S ABSENCE

Warned

NO QUARTERS TO CONGRESSMEN!

SURAT, Nov. 4.

The District Magistrate in a public statement warns the people against letting their houses and other properties to Congress workers carrying on unlawful activities. He recalls the fact that several property owners prosecuted for letting their houses to Congress workers or carrying on anti-Government activities had frequently contended in the law courts that they were ignorant of the activities of their tenants and in certain cases it had been established that owners were cognisant of tenants activities and had been seen in need.

The District Magistrate, therefore, once more warns property owners against committing such an offence and reiterates that offenders in future will not only be seriously dealt with but Government will also consider what steps should be taken in respect of their properties.—A. P.

45th EMERGENCY COUNCIL ARRESTED

"Gandhi Day" Sequel In Bombay

BOMBAY, Friday.

A Congress demonstration held on Chowpatty this evening to observe the "Gandhi Incarceration Day" culminated in the arrest of 14 persons including three members of the 45th Emergency Council.

A batch of volunteers in tri-colour uniforms headed by the members of the "Emergency Council" entered the Chowpatty Sands, and as they were about to address a meeting, a party of police from Gamdevi put them under arrest, and marched them to the lock-up.

HARTAL IN THE CITY

BOMBAY, Friday.

To-day being "Gandhi Day," shops in the principal bazaars of the city were closed.

Seven Congress volunteers were placed before the Chief Presidency Magistrate on the charge of picketing. The accused were arrested at Kalbadevi and Princess Street, while picketing a cycle shop and the shop of Mr. Narotam, Girdhar. They were all given six months' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 50 each in default six weeks' further imprisonment.

One of the accused receiving the sentence shouted "Mahatma Gandhi-ki Jai" when he was warned by the Magistrate not to do so.

Notes of the Day

Labour Compromise.

The amiable and philanthropic Mr. George Lansbury is simply playing into the hands of his opponents by agreeing to move a weak resolution on unemployment, perhaps in the hope that all parties in the Parliament may subscribe to it. Mr. MacDonald will no doubt make one of his rhetorical speeches which may mean nothing in the end. The National Government made much of the unemployment figures when it came into power and claimed that its economic policy had the express purpose of bringing prosperity to Great Britain. But while the Tories have been instrumental in booming the gilt-edged securities and the number of the unemployed is leaping up. The hunger marchers in Great Britain got no better treatment from the Government than the bonus marchers got in Washington, though the grievances of the former were more genuine. It is this weakness for compromises that has brought the Labour Party to its present condition, for a mere pious resolution will help none, but the National Government.

Callous.

The Government's protest to the South African Union authorities is belated, and is likely to have little effect on the colour blind Government there. South African Indians pay rates and taxes like the Whites, yet they are denied vote, and refused even a little food in times of distress. And yet the South African Whites are intensely religious! The better placed Indians there have been helping their countrymen, but the number of the unemployed is growing and their misery increasing.

Only State Can Help.

Kunwar Maharaj Singh has been doing his best to meet the distress, but it is a problem with which only a Government can cope. The Union Government have shown the utmost callousness in this matter. They have by their White policy—of dismissing Indians and coloured people and filling their places with all kinds of Whites—increased the sufferings of Indians, while they refuse to spend a single pie for the starving. We do not know how to characterise this attitude!

Madras Ministerial Squabbles.

The fall of the Ministry in Madras need not disturb any one, for it has come to grief over an unworthy cause—the interests of the landed aristocracy represented by the Raja of Bobbili and Mr. P. T. Rajan, who want more power in the administration for their own purposes. No principle is involved in the present squabbles, for the Ministers have all along co-operated with the particularly strong regime in Madras all these years. The time has come for Ministries to be based on real political parties and not on communalism. The "Justice" Party is a purely communal Party, and now it will include the representatives of landed aristocracy in Madras. Surely such a Ministry cannot have the slightest right to call itself a democratic administration and perhaps it does not want to. None need shed a single tear over Mr. Munniswami Naidu's resignation.

Flying To See

Mr. Arthur Loew, Vice President of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Corporation who is flying round the world on a tour of inspection in the world's fastest monoplane "The Spirit of Fun" and who rushed from Calcutta to Bombay to be in time for the All-India Premiere of "Grand Hotel" at the Capitol-to-night arrives at Juhu aerodrome at midday to-day.

NEW NOMINATIONS FOR ASSEMBLY

NEW DELHI, Nov. 4.

The Government have nominated Dr. Meek, Director General of Commercial Intelligence, and Mr. B. C. Burt, Cotton expert, to be members of the Legislative Assembly to assist the House during the Ottawa debate.

Other changes among provincial official members of the Assembly have also taken place. Mr. V. S. Dutt, Mr. Abdul Hassan Mahomed, Mr. C. W. Dunn and Mr. P. Singh have been nominated. Sir Henry Gidney's place will be temporarily taken by Mr. E. H. M. Bower.

A meeting of the Council of State has been summoned for November 29.—A. P.

Thakkar On Propaganda Tour

NEW DELHI, Nov. 4.

Mr. A. V. Thakkar, Secretary, All-India Anti-Untouchability League, leaves Delhi to-night on tour in Northern and Central Provinces to organise propaganda and welfare work for "Depressed Classes." He will visit Patna, Calcutta, Gauhati, Cuttack, Nagpur and Jabalpur and return to Delhi by November 28. In the course of his tour he will meet public workers interested in the cause of the removal of untouchability and see the work already started.—A. P.

AN IMPOSED AGREEMENT For Britain's Benefit

INDIAN MERCHANTS CONDEMN OTTAWA DEAL

The Indian Merchants' Chamber has just published its Committee's representation to the Government of India on the Report of the Indian Delegation to the Ottawa Conference. It is a critical and comprehensive document which extends to 26 pages. The following is a brief summary of the Committee's main views:—

(1) The Agreement owes its origin not to India's wishes, but to those of Britain. Having regard to the circumstances under which it has been made, and is sought to be carried into effect, it will be one forced upon an unwilling people, and is therefore not likely to promote any cordial relations between the two countries, especially at the present juncture.

(2) The Agreement will perpetuate, and extend further the present dominant position of Britain in the trade of India. This is against the very economic axiom, that to be able to get the best advantage out of international trade, a country must needs have large trade relations with the largest possible number of countries as buyers and sellers—in other words, the widest possible markets and the widest possible sources of supply. Besides the consequent strengthening of the economic domination of Britain will only serve to perpetuate and stiffen the political domination.

(3) The Agreement is not based on the principle of reciprocity, because whereas the United Kingdom is likely to get a substantial benefit in the Indian market, India's advantage will be very little, if any, at all. The Delegation have failed to make effective use of the existing Indian tariff in striking a bargain.

(4) The Agreement ignores the principle of reciprocity altogether in the case of the Colonies, most of which are debarring from giving us any preference and to which nevertheless we are required to give preference. In the case of the remainder, we are asked to give more and receive less. Besides, agreements with the Colonies are yet to come.

(5) The Agreement will reduce the purchasing power of other countries for our goods, because we shall get our imports in a much greater proportion from the United Kingdom, and there will thus be a substantial reduction in our imports from, and therefore in our exports to, "other" countries, which is not likely to be balanced by a proportionate increase in our exports to the United Kingdom. The Agreement wholly ignores this important factor.

(6) The Agreement may lead to retaliation, active or passive, from foreign countries, the aggregate trade with which is of far more consequence to us than that with the United Kingdom.

(7) The Agreement is bound to lead to additional indirect taxation at a time when the people are already overtaxed. Even if in future the finances of the Government of India improve, there will remain a large amount of this avoidable taxation on goods from other countries.

(8) The Agreement will seriously prejudice the growth of Indian industries in those articles in which British goods are to receive preference and many a nascent industry will be given out of our own home market. Even if an Indian industry in any of these articles, at any time in the future, proves its case for protection, will be given only on the basis of preference to British goods, as already done in the case of Steel and Textiles.

(9) The Agreement initiates a policy of industrial co-operation between Britain and India, which will reduce India to the position of manufacturing semi-finished articles, and the Indian taxpayer will be called upon to pay in order that the British manufacturer may have the benefit of turning such articles into finished products for the Indian market.

(10) The Agreement in increasing British imports into India and diverting some of our exports to Britain, will only help to tighten the stranglehold of British shipping to the detriment of our own.

(11) The alleged safeguard of power to denounce the Agreement on six months' notice is illusory.

(12) The threatened loss of Indian trade in the British market by the imposition of a duty on certain Indian commodities, in the event of non-acceptance of the Agreement by India, is highly and unnecessarily exaggerated, because

(a) the United Kingdom is not likely to impose additional duties on articles of food and drink or those which are required by her for manufacturing purposes;

(b) the United Kingdom is not likely to reduce imports from India, so long as she desires to increase her exports to us;

(c) the amount of trade which may be, if at all, in danger is so small that we shall be able to find other markets for the same, if necessary; and

(d) the difficulty of having to find such other markets is insignificant, compared with all the disadvantages enumerated above.

In conclusion the Committee observes: "The Agreement should be judged 'as a whole' in its manifold consequences on the economic life and financial system of the country, because these are interconnected. The emphasis of the Delegation on only one single aspect, viz. the threatened loss of India's trade in the British market, gives an entirely wrong and warped perspective to the Agreement, and this must be deprecated as but a piece of propaganda in favour of British industry under the guise of the so-called protection of the interests of the Indian farmer. For, the Agreement does 'not' at all protect his interests; it is calculated only to divert the trade of India from other countries to the United

NO FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

Husband's Evidence At Inquest Of Mrs. Pillay's Body

BOMBAY, Friday. Mr. Nataraja Pillay, the Superintendent Engineer of the Mills belonging to the Currimbhoy group, gave evidence this morning at the inquest that is being held by the coroner of Bombay, in the cause of the death of Mrs. Kamalamma Nataraja Pillai.

At a previous hearing it was told that Mrs. Kamalamma, who was living with her husband in a flat in the compound of the Bradbury Mills, was found by the police and the Fire Brigade men on the night of November 1, burnt dead, inside the bathroom, which was bolted from inside. The police had to break down the doors. The room was filled with kerosine smoke, a kerosine oil tin and a matchbox were found inside the room. At the time the tragedy occurred Mr. Pillay had gone on leave to Madras and arrived in Bombay only yesterday.

NO FOUL PLAY. To-day, before recording the evidence the jury visited the house of Mr. Pillay and examined the room, where the tragedy took place.

In his evidence Mr. Pillay stated that he went to Madras on October 28. His sister, and her children who had come from Malabar for a change were living with him. On October 31, he sent a wire to his wife informing her of his having purchased a house in Madras and she sent money in advance for the purchase. The deceased was in charge of finance in all household matters. There was no trouble at all between witness and his wife. She has had four or five miscarriages and was very unhappy over it. There were many valuables, all of which were in her charge. When witness returned from Madras he found the diamond ear-rings, golden bangles and some other jewellery kept underneath two mattresses. There was no trouble at all between his sister and his wife. They were affectionate towards each other. Witness did not suspect any foul play.

SISTER-IN-LAW'S EVIDENCE. Jagadamba Kandath, the sister-in-law, of the deceased stated in her evidence that on the evening of November 1, deceased went out for a drive with her children and witness's sister and her children. She returned at about 9 at night. The deceased did not take dinner, but took some coffee. While retiring to bed she complained of having got 102 degrees fever. Some time during midnight she was aroused from her sleep by a servant and was told that her sister-in-law was burnt to death. She went to the bathroom to see the body. As she could not bear the sight of burnt body she returned to her own room.

A ten-year-old daughter of the deceased said she was aroused during midnight by alarms raised by somebody. The servant was shouting and she opened both doors of her room. She was later told that her mother was found dead.

SCENE IN BATHROOM. Sergeant Luckman of the Agrigada police station stated on receiving a telephone call at about 12.45 that night he hurried to the Bradbury Mills. He found the body of a woman burnt in the bathroom. He also noticed fresh blood stains in the middle of the room. There were kerosine oil tin and a matchbox lying in the bathroom. Only one match had been struck. When the police officer picked up the burnt match stick it smelt of soap.

The verdict of the inquest will be given on Saturday by the coroner's jury.

In fact, the probable loss to him in the reduced demand for Indian raw materials from other countries will be greater than the threatened loss to him in the British market in case of non-acceptance of the Agreement. Judging the Agreement as a whole, it is not in the interest of the Indian farmer, nor in the interest of the Indian businessman, nor in the interest of the Indian manufacturer, nor in the interest of the general taxpayer. It is only in the interest of the British manufacturer, the British exporter, and the British shipper. Truly has the President of the Board of Trade in His Majesty's Government declared in the House of Commons that it will mean an enormous increase in the activities of our houses exporting to India with a corresponding effect on manufacturing centres in the United Kingdom.

Sir Samuel Wilson, permanent Under-Secretary for Colonies, passed through Bombay on his way to Colombo. He saw the Bombay Governor and lunched in Government House.

MISSIONARIES' MANIFESTO AGAINST ORDINANCE

FRESH LIST OF INTERPELLATIONS TO ASSEMBLY

(From Our Special Correspondent)

NEW DELHI, November 4.

Quite a heavy list of questions awaits the Assembly Session, and daily many more are pouring in. Among the members who have sent in fresh questions is Mr. Bhupasingh who wishes to know what action the Government has taken on the Scottish Missionaries' manifesto against the ordinance regime and what reply has been given to the missionaries. He also wishes to find out how the position stands with regard to the rail-road competition and the results of inquiries hitherto pursued by Government in the matter.

Proceedings at the question hour are expected to be again lively. The reason, of course, is that the Opposition benches find the question hour the best occasion to ventilate their criticism of the Government policy and measures through a series of supplementary inquiries. This is because they are not able, unlike the opposition in the previous Assemblies, to mobilise a majority against the Government either on the constitutional or other matters on which the public feels strongly. So, they resort to interpellations for the purpose of demonstrations.

Rapid Progress At Allahabad

(Continued from Page 1.) Jana Shaukatali simply remarked, "We are getting along." Asked about their progress, he added it was satisfactory.

Sgt. Vijayaragavachar was last come out. When questioned he said, if parties wasted less time in talking and talking things, could be decided much more quickly.

Sir. Rajagopalachari who accompanied the grand old man of Madras looked distinctly worried.

ONLY MINOR ISSUES. From inquiries, I gather the major questions were not tackled during the four hours of discussion. Time was taken mostly by discussions of comparatively minor issues and agreement was reached regarding cabinets and Services. It was agreed that conventions would be established to secure representation of minorities on the cabinets and services.

SIKH ATTITUDE. The Sikhs are understood to have insisted that Sikh members on Cabinet should be one selected by Sikh members of the Legislature. The suggestion was considered unhealthy as it goes against the principle of joint responsibility.

The committee is meeting again and it is likely the plenary session of the Conference would be adjourned till sometime tomorrow.

The progress so far is considered slow the reason being the indulgence in talks which do not carry things further.

REPRESENTATION OF MINORITIES Prolonged Sitting Of Committee Of 20

ALLAHABAD, Nov. 4. Protracted deliberations of the Committee of twenty members appointed at last night's plenary session of the Unity Conference to formulate agreed proposals on all matters at issue, have hitherto yielded small results in consequence of which it will be unable to submit its report to the Conference, as it was anticipated when the Conference re-assembled at 7 this evening.

The Conference will therefore, adjourn probably till tomorrow after a brief formal sitting. At its meeting last night and again from 11 a.m. till 3 p.m. to-day, it is understood that conversations mainly related to com-

PERAMBUR STRIKE More Men Down Tools

The Secretary of the M. and S. M. Railway Employees' Union Madras, Perambur, wires under date November 4:—

The M. & S. M. Railway strikers number has increased from 6,000 to 6,800. The Arkonal Engineering workshop staff struck work yesterday. All the non-striker malis joined the strikers today except one. The clerks joining to-morrow. A perfect peace and non-violence prevails.

The Perambur situation remains unchanged and the workers are firm. The Propaganda Parties of Union volunteers are directing the strike operations in an exemplary manner. The President, Mr. Giri addressed the Railway Workers of Jalapet to wait their turn for the Union's call. He is visiting Bangalore to-day and returning Madras tomorrow before going to Hubli.

paratively minor issues like representation of minorities in the Services and on Provincial and Central Cabinets. Agreements are believed to have been reached on both these heads.

Regarding representation of minorities in Cabinets, it is understood that the Committee was practically unanimous that a convention should establish that minorities in each Province and also at the Centre should be represented.

It is understood that major issues before the Conference namely Muslim majorities in the Punjab and Bengal, the separation of Sind, and the question of joint electorate still remain to be tackled but it is hoped that they will be disposed of when the Committee re-assembles at 4.30 p.m. and again to-night.

A striking aspect of talk in the Committee hitherto was the serious attitude of members when they dispersed at 3 p.m. which left the impression that earlier optimism was finding only slow fulfilment.—A.P.

Patna.—News has been received here of the death of Mr. F. R. Ezechiel, Deputy Inspector General of Police, Bihar and Orissa, on board the S. S. "Britania". Mr. Ezechiel left the province recently on leave preparatory to retirement. He joined the service in 1899.—A.P.

Five Year Plan Against Untouchability

ALL-INDIA LEAGUE'S CONSTRUCTIVE PROGRAMME

(From Our Correspondent.)

NEW DELHI, November 3. "The League will work to bring about such a radical change in the mentality of the Caste Hindus that they will, as a matter of course, treat the Harijans as their equals, but social reforms, the abolition of caste system and inter-dining are outside the scope of the League" this is the considered opinion expressed in the comprehensive programme of the Anti-Untouchability League, issued to-day under the signature of Messrs. Ghanshamdas Birla, President and A. V. Thakker, secretary.

After tracing the history of the League from the fasting of Mahatma Gandhi, the signatories set out the following as the aim of the League.

"To free the Hindu community in whole of the country from all the evils springing from the institution of untouchability by all peaceful means. It aims at the complete removal of any bar in civic matters which operate to the detriment of the down-trodden section of our people."

CONSTRUCTIVE WORK.

The League will work among the Caste Hindus as well as among the untouchables. The signatories, however, make it clear that, while the League will work by persuasion among the Caste Hindus to remove every vestige of untouchability, the main line of work will be constructive, such as the uplift of the depressed classes' educationally, economically and socially, which itself will go a great way to remove untouchability. The signatories also make it clear, that in order to be able to carry on its work on a non-party basis it had been decided not to associate itself with politics or religious propaganda of any kind. The League proposes to carry out work in an area comprising usually one district, but, if necessary, to districts or even part of a district.

PROPAGANDA FOR SECURING EQUAL RIGHTS.

Public meetings will be held with a view to work by all peaceful means for equal rights for all Harijans in the use of and access to public temples, roads, public wells and dharamsalas. But the main duty of the workers will be of an ameliorative character. This will consist of looking into the education of the Harijan boys and girls and if possible of adults, arranging to send them to the common or ordinary schools and hostels and providing for their books and other expenses. Improvement in their economic condition by giving attention to their industries and establishing co-operative societies, etcetera.

It is proposed to budget Rs. 3,000 for each unit, 23rd of which will be devoted to the actual work and the remaining 13rd on the staff and their allowances.

PLAN FOR WORK.

For purposes of anti-untouchability work, India has been divided into 22 provinces or 104 units on which a sum of Rs. 600,000 is proposed to be spent. This amount will be made up both from the central fund and from funds raised by provinces and districts. This sum of Rs. 600,000 is proposed to be raised and spent every year in the whole of India.

It is proposed in the first instance to carry out the programme for five years. That central board of the League has collected and will collect large donations from important commercial towns and rulers of the states. The provincial boards in their turn will collect funds within their jurisdiction and also authorise the district committees to collect funds from their own districts for purposes of meeting the expenditure in their own districts.

CONSTITUTION OF BOARD.

The signatories have also published the constitution of the Board with 11 members forming the Central Board. Meetings of the Board will be held once at least every six months. The president of the Board will select candidates to work as president on each Provincial Board who, in his turn, will select members of his board. The secretary of the Provincial Boards will be paid salary from the Central Fund. Every board will contain a proportion of members, if possible, of one-third belonging to Harijans.

DELAYS OF WHITEHALL

Hamper Work Of Retrenchment

(From Our Special Correspondent)

NEW DELHI, November 4.

It is understood that some of the provincial Governments and minor administrations feel hurried in such cases, moves so slowly that it is generally six months to a year before any decision is taken. For instance, the little administration of Coorg is faced with financial difficulty and wished to abolish the I.M.S. claim to a post of Indian Medical Service. Interests in the Government, naturally would not yield, until the Secretary of State has agreed to the abolition and at once secured the appointment of a successor.

Similarly the Punjab Government's proposal to withdraw a health officers post from I.M.S. roll and fill it cheaply has been held up for consideration and months may pass before any decision is taken unless the Education Department takes special pains to take up the matter.

Unity Now Or Never

ther we cannot get over our social differences. I feel we can and when we do it will be conducive to that harmonious action which is essential for the formation of the national system of Government. We, therefore, propose to have a discussion by a few representatives and to explore the lines on which such agreement can be made possible. Having Saturday and Sunday Matinee 2-30 I feel it is possible to get an agreement. If you examine our differences and try to understand the view of those who differ from us you will see that you have to satisfy them, and bring them to our side. These things cannot be settled by votes alone. They must be settled by men acting together not as Hindus or Muslims or Sikhs, but as Indians, as statesmen and deputised by you with your backing, to consider what it is to give and to receive, and to form an assembly of free men in other countries. Do not we long for these things? How long shall we be kept away from these things? I have said enough. I am deeply grieved over the present situation, where best of us could be kept in prisons at will, by orders wrongly called "law," where our financial interests are crushed, and all our nation-building activities are stopped. At such a time as this then shall we not sink our differences in a truly national spirit to all those who feel that their rights will suffer, because they are in a minority in one province, or another. We will assure them of their rights. We will assure them also of a Constitution built by heads and hearts together of those who have ruled over this country for centuries—Hindus, Muslims and Sikhs and now Christians, and believe me that such a constitution shall challenge any other constitution in the world. I believe we have enough intellect and intelligence to achieve this ideal. Our present state is due to our own failures to see light.

MALAVIYAJI'S CONFESSION.

"I am sorry to confess I am one of those who failed to follow that light. I see it now. It shall be our endeavour to strive not to secure one advantage over another, but offer equal privileges and do the right by every one who claims this land of ours as his Motherland, and I trust God will bless us in this effort."

"HAND OF GOD IN THIS MOVE"

Maulana Shaukat Ali
On "Peace With Honour"

(From Our Staff Correspondent).

ALLAHABAD, November 4.

"I have seen from the very beginning the hand of God in this move," thus said Mr. Shaukat Ali who followed Pt. Malaviya. He added: "When he went to Lucknow, we said it will be a success and when came here we said it shall be a success. (Applause). I want peace, a very big peace. Whatever my wrongs I will bottle them up. The Viceroy's advisers wrongly advised him. They wanted to show their strength. We will not quarrel, but we will refuse to accept defeat. There is no question of tactics involved in this Conference."

"MOONJE, MY FRIEND."

If I want to fight I will do it openly.

Dr. Moonje is my friend and fellow conspirator too. (Laughter). There is no fun in his putting his right hand in his beard, and putting my left hand in his beard. (Laughter). Again the time had come when we should all combine and reach a solution that will help every body. I feel we are going to win.

PEACE WITH HONOUR.

But I want peace with honour. I do not want peace with humiliation, for any party. That is no peace. (Dr. Moonje was heard to remark "What a manly speech.")

I respect him for it." Maulana Zafarali, who followed and met under the shadow of misfortune with Gandhiji, Jawaharlal and 60,000 others in jail. He implored delegates to remember the appeal of Mrs. Kamala Nehru issued from her sick bed. She had reminded Hindus of their love, Muslims of their generosity, and Sikhs of their valour. They would all be weighed to-day and he hoped none of them would be found wanting.

The Maharaja of Darbhanga said a few words welcoming the Unity Move.

Mr. J. N. Basu said they were deciding not only the present

I. C. S. LESS POPULAR

Englishmen Look For Other Careers

The results of the examination for the Indian Civil Service just ended reveal that events in India have affected the popularity of the Service as a career for young Englishmen at our Universities.

There is a falling-off in the number of British candidates. Eighty-three sat for the examination, compared with 93 last year.

This reduction may be small, but it is disquieting to the authorities.

On the other hand, there is a small increase in the number of Indians in this country attending English universities who compete for posts in the service. The Indians who sat for examination numbered 168, compared with 163 last year.

CAMBRIDGE AT THE TOP.

It is noteworthy that nearly all the Indians who win places at this examination are Hindus.

At Sandhurst the position is reversed and the great majority of the cadets who pass into the Indian Army are Mohammedans, Sikhs, and Rajputs, belonging to the fighting races.

In order to hold the balance evenly, the Indian Government, at the examination at Allahabad now held yearly, reserves a proportion of the vacancies for Mohammedans.

Thirty vacancies were offered this time, and the Indians won six, the highest Indian candidate in the list being awarded the 13th place.

Of the 24 British candidates who were successful 12 were educated at Cambridge and eight at Oxford. Of the other universities Glasgow had two to its credit, London University 1 and St. Andrews 1.

GRAIN-DEALER'S COMPLAINT

BOMBAY, Friday.

Mr. N. T. Jangalwalla, Presidency Magistrate, fifth court, ordered summons to be issued against Pirojshah M. Gandhi, Rustom M. Gandhi and Rustomji C. Desai in the case in which Premchand Lavji, the complainant, charged them with cheating.

The complainant is a grain dealer at Dadar. The second and the third accused are brothers and the third accused is a common friend. All the three have dealings with the complainant.

On June 25 the first accused gave the complainant a cheque for Rs. 570, dated June 27, 1932, drawn by the third accused and asked for cash. The complainant got the money from the peddlar of Kanji Pancha and Co. and paid the amount to the accused. The cheque was, however, dishonoured when presented.

When pressed for the money, the accused gave the complainant another cheque for the same amount drawn by his brother, the second accused, but this too was dishonoured. He therefore charged the accused as above.

His Worship ordered summons to be issued against the accused.

Victims Of Motor Accident

BOMBAY, Friday.

Deva Gopal died due to the fracture of the base of the skull and Gayabai Bhika died of shock from the fracture and other multiple injuries. The above was the verdict of the Coroner's Jury at the inquest held over the two victims of the Falkland Road Motor accident. The Jury were further of opinion that the two victims were fatally injured by a motor car driven in a rash and negligent manner along Falkland Road by the suspect Daniel Amanna.

It transpires from the evidence that Daniel, the suspect was driving a car, fas, along the Falkland Road on Tuesday.

A millworker Deva Gopal, who also going along that road was knocked down and thrown about ten yards to the front by the car. The suspect immediately swerved the car to his left and Gayabai Bhika who was going towards the Play House, was frightened at the cries that were raised by the crowd. The car, which was swerved to the left jammed the woman between its bumper and the tram post. Both the injured persons were removed to the J. J. Hospital, where they succumbed to their injuries.

BRAINS BEHIND PICKETING Congress Workers Jailed

BOMBAY, Friday.

Four Congress Volunteers who were arrested by the Poonamie Police when they raided a room in a building at Kazi Syed Street were to-day sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment, each, for having assisted the operations of an unlawful association by Mr. M. A. F. Coelmo, Presidency Magistrate, Mazagor.

Serjeant Twiss in his evidence stated that on October 23, he arrested two Congress pickets in consequence of a statement made by them. He with some other officers raided a room in a building at Kazi Syed Street on October 24 and arrested in all eleven persons. The above four, one of whom was said to be the true leader of the Congress volunteers' camp, are alleged to be organisers of Congress pickets in the city.

PICKETS' EVIDENCE.

Two pickets who were arrested by the police officer the previous day gave evidence for the prosecution and stated that they had only recently come to Bombay from Malabar. One of the above accused met them casually and there to get them look. The next day they were asked to go to the front of a shop to which they were told, "Surrender." They could not surrender, and what it meant to surrender in front of a shop. A day later they were arrested by the police.

PUPALA COMMITTED TO SESSIONS

High Court Rejects Bail Application

ORDERS IN KAMATIPURA "MURDER" CASE

BOMBAY, Friday.

Charges were framed to-day by Mr. Oscar Brown, Presidency Magistrate, Special Court, against the first five accused in what is known as the Kamatipura Murder Case. The last two were discharged by the magistrate as no case was made out by the prosecution against them.

The accused in the case were:—

S. K. Pupala, an ex-Corporator and a member of the Peace Committee; and Moreswar Nursoji, a building contractor; Shanker Piraji, Rajaram Krishna, Shiva Kondanna, Baboo Shanker, Panduranga Umaji.

The prosecution case against the accused is that during the recent communal riots Pupala and Moreswar addressed Hindu meetings at Kamatipura and incited them to assault Muslims. On May 15 both the above accused addressed a mob about 200 Hindus near the Maruthi temple in Kamatipura and incited them to go and demolish the taja that was erected in Fifth Lane. Accordingly the mob went and destroyed the taja. The next day May 16, the first two accused again harangued the crowd to go and burn the taja. Incited by the first two accused, the mob went and set fire to the taja. Both in the destruction and firing of the taja the last five accused and some other Hindus, who are absconding, took part.

MUSLIM IS COMING.

When the mob returned to the Maruthi temple after setting fire to the taja, a Muslim was seen coming from the Fifth Lane. The second accused told the first, that a Muslim was coming, on which the first accused said: "Let him come further". When the Muslim reached Bazar Road, Hanumantha and Shivaram (both of whom are absconding) ran after the Muslim and stabbed him. The Muslim was murdered in the Tenth Lane. The dead body was removed to the compound of a building nearby and kept there. All the accused took part in the removal of the body.

BODY IN MANHOLE.

On the night of May 17, hearing that the body which was thrown in the sweeper's gully was giving out bad smell, the first accused sent for Ravan (the principal prosecution witness) whom the accused wanted to help others, in removing the body from the sweeper's lane as the tenants in the building nearby were complaining of bad smell. Thereupon Ravan Hanumantha, Shivaram, Pupala, Moreswar and other accused went to the sweeper's lane. The body of the Muslim was dragged from there to a manhole in Bazar Road and was dumped into a sewer, the first two accused directed the operation.

The accused in their statements denied any knowledge of the murder and further stated that the case has been concocted.

THE CHARGES.

Mr. Brown, to-day passing orders, discharged Babu Shanker and Panduranga Umaji as there was not sufficient evidence to commit them to the sessions. Charges of murder, rioting, despoiling a sacred object and disposing of evidence was framed against Messrs. Pupala, Moreswar and the three others.

A further charge of inciting a mob to commit rioting was framed against Messrs. Pupala and Moreswar.

In passing orders the magistrate said: "After a careful perusal of the evidence in this case and after giving due weight to the arguments urged on behalf of the first five accused I am satisfied that a 'prima facie' case has been made out against them. I, therefore, commit them to the ensuing criminal sessions of the High Court to stand their trial on the charges framed against them. The bail bonds of the accused are cancelled."

BAIL APPLICATION.

After the orders were passed, Mr. S. G. Velinker moved an application for bail on behalf of Messrs. Pupala and Moreswar. Counsel read section 497 of the Criminal Procedure Code and stated that the magistrate would no doubt come to the conclusion that under terms of the section, he would not grant bail. But having heard the evidence, if the magistrate expressed an opinion that in a case like this bail ought not to be opposed, it would very strongly help and not hamper the defence. He was not asking that bail should be granted but only an expression of opinion by the magistrate, which would be a guide to the public prosecutor.

FUNCTUS OFFICIO.

Magistrate:—I am functus officio. Mr. Velinker:—You can make a note that I applied for bail and say that in the interest of justice bail ought not to be opposed.

Magistrate:—What is the value of the opinion of a subordinate court, when the High Court is really seized of the matter.

Mr. Velinker said that he was moving the High Court for bail this afternoon and point out that a judicial officer having heard a case could guide the opinion of the officers of the Crown.

The magistrate said that he could not express any opinion and refused the application.

Mr. S. G. Velinker, with Mr. V. G. Dalvi and Mr. S. B. Awar appeared for the first and second accused. Mr. A. R. Gadkari for the third, fourth and fifth accused. Mr. S. B. Awar for the sixth accused and Mr. J. T. Parulker for the seventh.

Mr. W. K. Mankar, police prosecutor, conducted the prosecution.

PUPALA'S BAIL APPLICATION

Rejected By High Court

BOMBAY, Friday.

An application was made this afternoon before Mr. Justice Broomfield, who presides over the High Court Sessions, for the release on bail of Mr. Pupala and others who are committed to the Sessions.

His lordship rejected the application.

PROFIT-TAKING ON LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

Indian Loans Weaken

LONDON, Nov. 3.
On the Stock Exchange although early closing of the subscription list of the new conversion loan created favourable impression, profit-taking mainly by speculative holders increased, with the result that gilt-edged securities closed half to three quarters below yesterday. Indian loans also weakened, otherwise the market was generally brighter.

Cables and wireless and Wool-worths were particularly strong.
Commodity markets were very quiet, apart from sugar which strengthened on the reported signing by the Cuban President of the decree restricting the next crop.
Wall Street after slight improvement turned very dull.—Reuter

German Establishes World Record

BUDAPEST, Nov. 4.
The world's record speed on two wheels at approximately 148 miles an hour, was accomplished by the well-known German mo-torcyclist Henne on a B.M.W.
Machine.
Henne covered a measured mile with a flying start in 24.44 seconds.—Reuter.

DISARMAMENT America's Attitude

LONDON, Nov. 3.
Geneva.—"America is prepared to support the permanent commission for the supervision and control of disarmament, provided the final treaty embodies a satisfactory measure of disarmament along the lines of the Hoover plan," declared Mr. Hugh Wilson, the American delegate to the Disarmament Conference.—Reuter.

"Australia's Fiscal Freedom Destroyed"

LONDON, Nov. 3.
Canberra.—An amendment that Ottawa Ratification Bill should be withdrawn and the new agreements negotiated was moved by
M. Scullin in the House of Representatives in the course of the resumed debate on the Bill. M.
Scullin declared that the agreement destroyed Australia's fiscal freedom.

M. Lyons replied that the whole object of the amendment was to destroy the agreement which did not diminish Australia's effective protection. The debate was adjourned.—Reuter.

WILL PREMIER GO TO GENEVA?

LONDON, Nov. 3.
The decision is primarily due to the doctor's advice, but the daily pressure of official work is so exhausting that no time is left for function. There is no reason to believe that Mr. Macdonald will be unable to go to Geneva, and he will review international affairs in the course of the debate in the Commons
next Thursday.—Reuter's Special.
